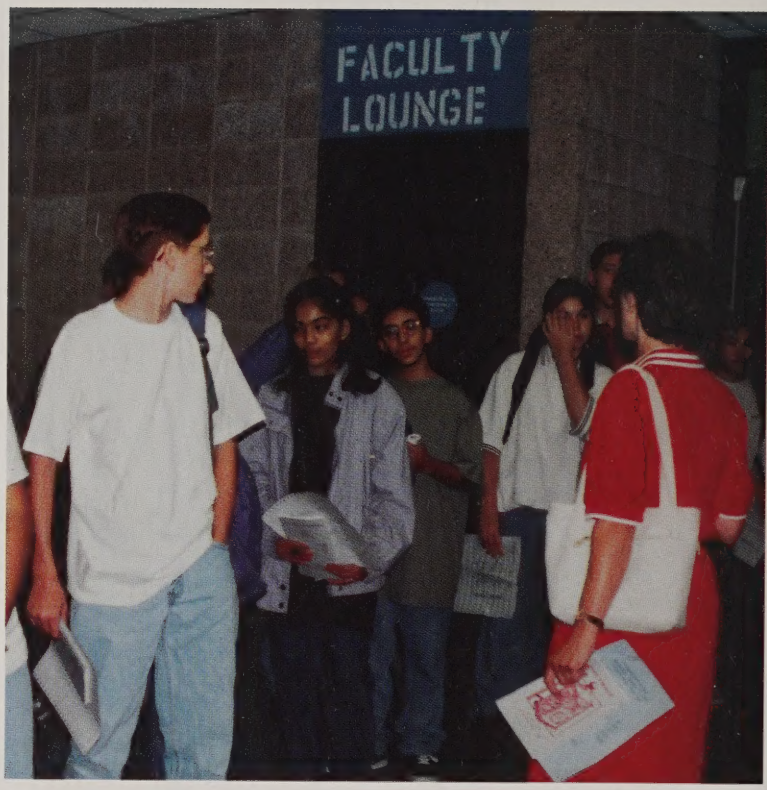
Flashback to Where it all Started

Remember meeting your Cluster teachers? We saw pretty much the same kids in every class. Students only traveled beyond the cluster walls for Foreign Languange, Health & PE, Band, or Keyboarding. Free from middle school, we felt some independence, but we were still considered the little people on campus. The freshman experience was one we couldn't wait to get through.

ON THE WAY TO THE CAFE
Anxious for the school tours, Mrs. Littlefield guides freshmen through the lobby on the first day of school.

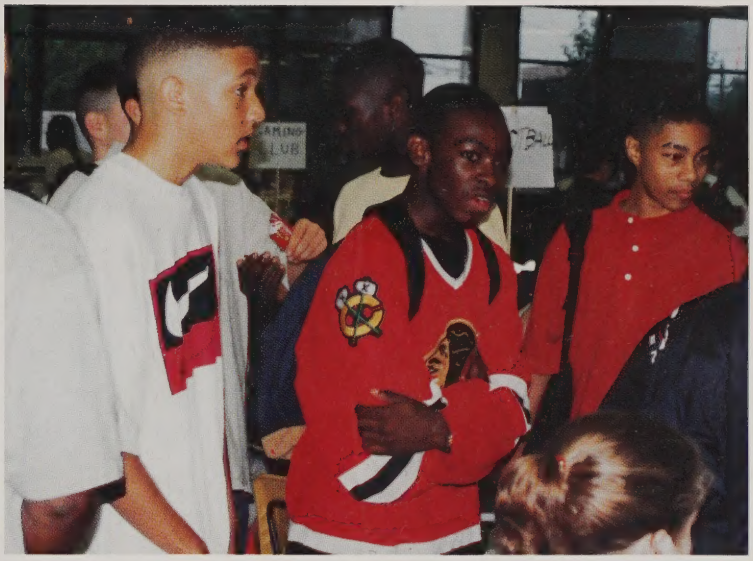


PICTURE PERFECT
Lounging on the benches, Sareth Yut, Prosoth Nhem & Learn Tuy patiently wait their have their ID Badge photos taken.

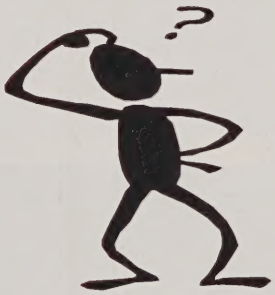
SAY CHEESE
Gathering together, Amanda Lamphier, Lisa Chenevert, Stefanie Joncas & Bridget Byrne prepare for pictures.

BE INVOLVED
Wading through the activity fair in the cafeteria, freshman got a first hand look at the 40 clubs and 32 varsity sports offered at LHS.

DECISIONS
Deciding what clubs to join, Isom Harris, Michael Martin & Joshua Pottle check out their options.



IGN UP TIME
Vaiting to go to class, these freshman oys can't decide on whether to join a ub or play a sport.



What are your freshman year memories?

My freshmen year memories are from Cluster One. Out of all the years, I have to say that was the phattest. The teachers were mad cool, especially Mrs. Ansara.

-Peter Pang

My friend Matt placed all my books on the top shelf in my locker, I had to get my friend Dave to get them down for me because I couldn't reach them.

-Jose Pagan

I was excited to meet new people because I had just moved from Michigan.

-Kudzai Gomwe

I felt as though it was a stress free environment because of being in clusters!

-Ana Gutierrez

I was nervous when I first arrived. After a while I got the hang of it; I made new friends & am still friends with them. I'll never forget my years here, especially my freshman year.

-Vanny Suy

One Spring Evening

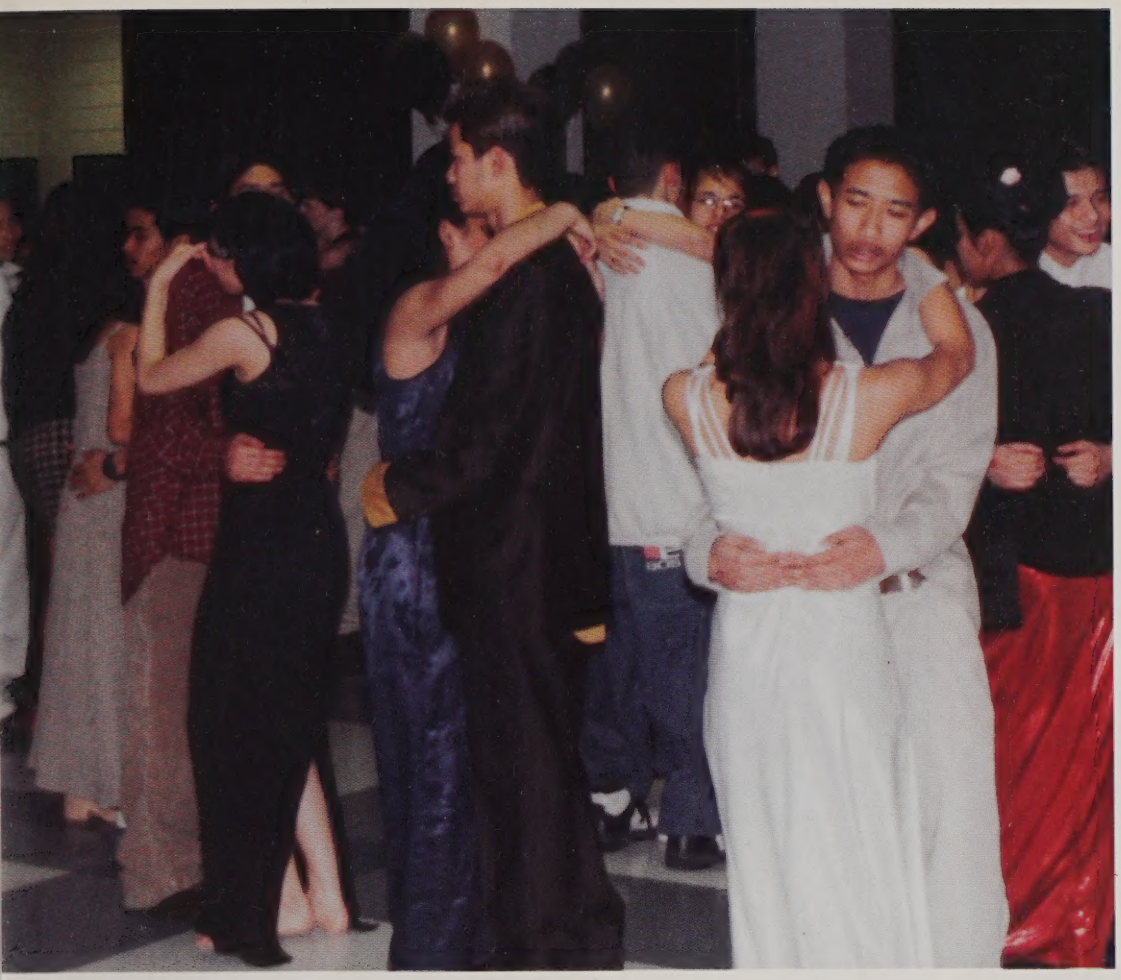
Oh, so long ago...

Gold & black streamers and vibrant balloons covered the Thomas A. Murphy Cafeteria to make the transformation of our daily eating place a success. Soda & snacks were served throughout the never-ending evening. Held on Friday, April 3, 1998, many upperclass students joined the crowd of freshmen for their first formal dance ever.

KEEP SERVING
Pouring sparkling soda, John Silva and Brenda DeAngelis set up the beverages for the Freshmen Social.

WAITING ANXIOUSLY
Unsatisfied with their dates, these freshmen guys wait for the ladies to call them to the dance floor.

ALL HUGS
Getting ready to strut their stuff, Garrett Trombly, Darcie Williams & Katie Dussault gather on the dance floor.



CLOSE UP
Partnered up for a slow song, couples share a close, tender moment.

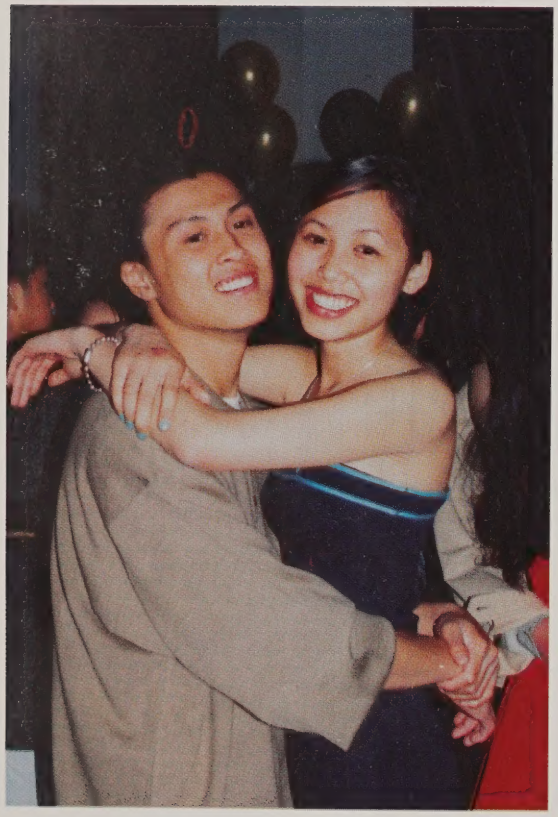
FRIENDS FOREVER
Settled at the social, Monique Bolden & Kristin Hamilton model the spring fashions of 1998.

FIRST SIGNS OF SPRING
All dressed up and no where to go, Samai Sinn & Sopheap Hang enjoy their time at the social. Students crowded the cafeteria dance floor until 11 p.m.

SMILES FOR THE FRESH GIRLS
Just having fun, Katherine Kennedy, Katie Rogers, Sarah Staid, Eileen Cohn & Bridget Byrne squeeze in for a fast dance.

CHIT CHAT
Besides dancing Vy & Phana continue their conversation as Samai tries to listen to the music.

KEEPING IT LOW KEY
Away from the big crowds, Sandy Luangoudom & Leakhena Levin dance to their own style while others jump around behind them.

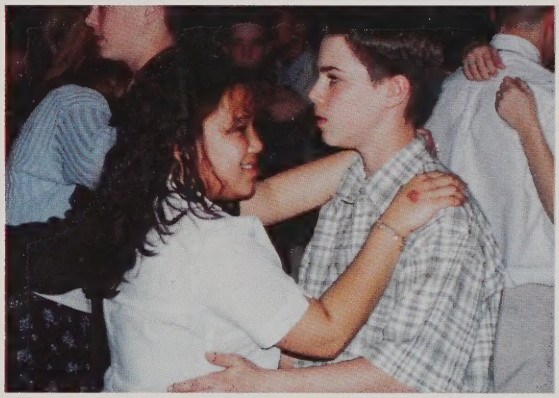


STEALING A SLOW SONG
Working their way around the dance floor, Reaksmey Soy and her date Bun twirl around to the magical music.

By the end of the night...

KEEPING SECRETS
Whispering some words of wisdom, Bunnavy Chak tells Sunlin Hem something funny about her boyfriend David.

AVOIDING EYE CONTACT
Keeping an arm's length apart, Samath Soy & John DeAngelis do their best not to make eye contact.



SET UP CREW
Making the night a success, a few dedicated freshman help setup to make it an unforgettable evening.

PAIRED UP
Swing your partner round & round, doing the Doe-See-Doe, these couples bust a move.

CUDDLING UP

SHARING STORIES
Found on the outskirts of the dance floor, Joe Sargeant & Erin O'Brien chat about their night and their missing dates.

Ready to Rock ~n~ Roll

Held at the Fransican Center in Andover on March 13,1999, sophomores danced the night away to the sounds of DJs Chris & Gretchen Brunelle. The night was full of fun, glitz & glamour. Never enough time, partiers were decked out to hang with friends & dates.

GIRLS JUST WANNA HAVE FUN

Stopping to admire their choice of dresses, Kerri Russell & Kristin Lesniak make their way back to their table.

WHEN ALL IS SAID & DONE
At the end of the night, some students finish the fun on the floor while others make a quick dash for the exit doors.

ON BENDED KNEE
A true gentleman, Dennis Filiatrault gives Sylvia Rocha a place to rest.

WAITING PATIENTLY
Hanging out, Lee Yin talks shop with other revelers while their dates hit the bathroom.

SLOWING IT DOWN
Nearing the end of the night, Maranda Strong gets a chance to dance with Coldan Tith.

MAKING AN ENTRANCE
Showing up early, Sunlin Hem & her date wait for the rest of their friends to arrive.

FASHION DO'S
Looking their best, sunglasses were a requirement to hang out with these party-goers.

Good Friends, Harvest 1999 Food & Fun

The Junior Harvest was attended by over 600 jovial revelers. The night was full of dancing & socializing. While the tunes kept pumping, dancers tore up the floor. The attire for the evening was semi-formal. However, outfits ranged from shirt & tie to tuxedos for guys, while the ladies style ranged from dressy to extreme extravagant. In any event, everyone looked fabulous!

READY FOR FUN
Taking a break from dancing, these frie
enjoy a moment away from the crow dance area.

MAKING THEIR WAY THROUGH
Going through the buffet, Jennifer Hogue and Sarah Ryan head for the dessert section.

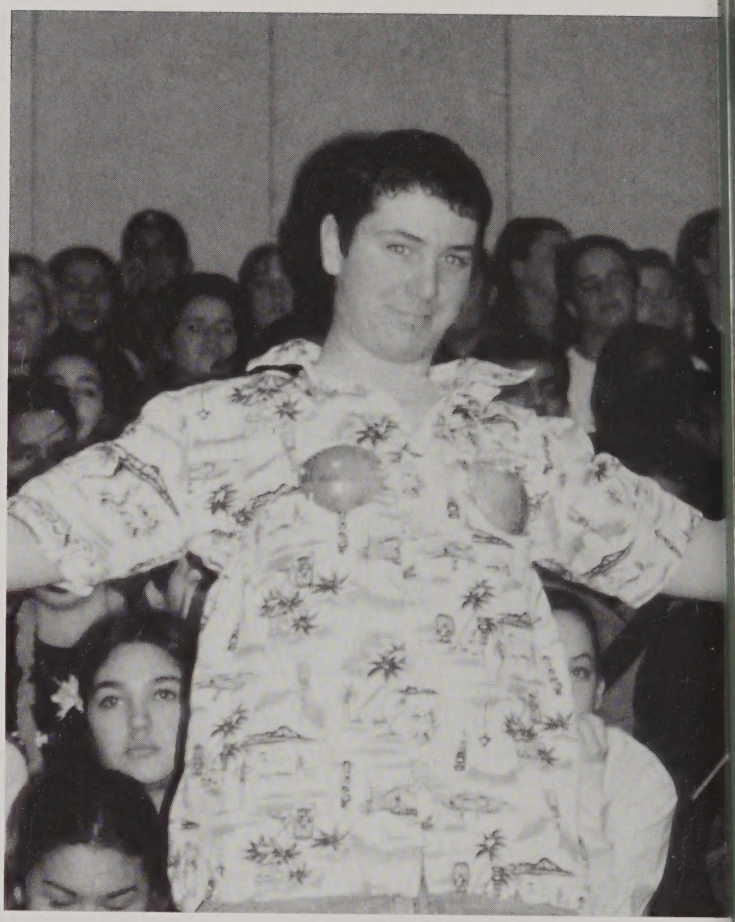
ALOHA
Standing tall & proud, Matthew Campbell dons his coconut bra & hawaiian shirt for the fun of it all. Students enjoyed the lip sync contest for the final event.



A Week at A Glance

After much anticipation & planning, members of the student body participated in three days of fun-filled events. Due to the high membership of each class, the decision to separate each class was made. Seniors were joined by freshman students each day, while sophomores & juniors competed against each other.

Held the week after quarterly exams, some students remained in homeroom to watch videos while the other two classes participated in events. Videos included educational information on Surviving High School & Teen Smoking. Each video lasted 45 minutes with an opportunity for questions & answers.

After being called to the fieldhouse, students watched, listened & laughed at the events. On Tuesday, Comedian Kevin Wanzer brought a suttle message that every student is different in their own way, and that being different was okay. ALOHA means Attitude, Love, Overcoming obstacles & HA laughing at yourself and with others. Clash & Dash Olympics brought an array of mismatched students to the gym for relay races. The Lip Sync Contest was splattered with students dressed for the Luau Dance. The best part of Spirit Week was coming together as a school, uniting in peaceful events for all to have fun!

SAY NO TO FIRESTONE

PLAYING CUPID
Showing that love exists in Lowell High, Liz Logan helps in the preparation of carnations.

SUPER SUPPORTERS
Participating or not, seniors show their support for the students working hard to get the win for Spirit Week activities.

A Senior Is...

the person who departs for a football game two hours early & arrives after halftime with tremendous spirit---regardless of the score!

the person who has attended LHS for four years & still can not sing a line of the school song.

the person who really knows there is no better form of nourishment than an Arthur's Boot Mill.

the person who thought downtown was really a class.

the person who arrives in homeroom on time---once a month.

the person who has Office Intern more than once a day.

the person who has both Office Intern & Work Experience.

the person who makes an appearance at the Harvest an hour late & leaves before 10 p.m.

the person who recalls studying weeks in advance for a quarterly while studying for a final in the five minute break between classes.

the person who joined every club existing to impress various colleges & missed every meeting held.

the person who barely sent in college applications by the deadline & waits while cursing the mailman to deliver the replies.

the person who has mastered a parent's signature.

the person who takes the day out of school to get ready for the Prom & shows up an hour late.

the person who leaves the garage more than once a day.

the person who has spent more time at the local golf course than half the members.

the person who has been praying for four years at LHS to finally come to an end & cries at graduation wondering where the time has gone.

You may think you have seen everything on campus, but there is always more to see...

Out & Around

BASEMENT, STREET SIDE
Taking advantage of ETS services, seniors Rin Kong, Christy Panynouvong, Bunnavy Chak & Sarachanda Ett sit in the band room listening to people from UMASS Amherst.

ON ARCAND DRIVE
Getting ready for the 2001 Winter Fest, volunteers Suzanne Motard & Katherine Swenson give a helping hand during the school day.

THOMAS CANE RESTAURANT
Leaving their pots & pans unattended, Iron Chef Charlie Bosgio, Bryan Lebel, Jennifer McAllister & Ryan Obdens rest after a morning of preparing lunch items.

PERIODICAL ROOM
Browsing through a magazine, Michael Burns sets his textbooks aside for some easy reading. The library media center has over 100 magazines for student perusal.

CAFETERIA DUTY
Working in the Thomas Murphy Cafeteria, ILC member Komal Patel puts a finishing touch on a carnation. The cafeteria played host for many events including sports nights, dances, meetings & dinners.

A WINDOW VIEW
After a fine meal, Elise Patterson, Emily Gilday & Kara Frechette enjoy their snacks. Also a highlight in the cafeteria was the Snack Bar & the 1826 School Store where students could buy treats!

COMPUTER LAB, CANAL SIDE
Excited to see the light of day, Bridget Byrne enters her newspaper room 142. The Review staff worked out of one of the many exiciting additions in the $40 million renovation that took place through 1997.

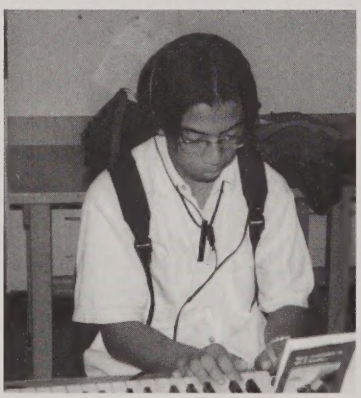
BASEMENT, OLD BUILDING
Instructors Mary Allan & Diane Allen explain to the cooking class what ingredient to put in next to make sure that the chicken tortellini soup taste its' best.

LIBRARY SQUAD
Making the library accessible to all who enter, Mrs. Taupier, Brice Gallagher, Thu Tran, Mr. Toromoreno, Mrs. Kassin & Ms. McDonnell help students obtain valuable resources for projects & papers.

CANAL SIDE, TROLLEY TRACKS
Hearing the toot of the horn, Vanny Suy, Sophean Lim, Kristin Hamilton & Jessie Blanchard race to get near the National Historical Park Trolley that runs along side the new building.

RAYMOND RIDDICK FIELDHOUSE
Crowding in the bleachers, seniors squeeze in for a memorable pep rally prior to the Thankgiving Day game.

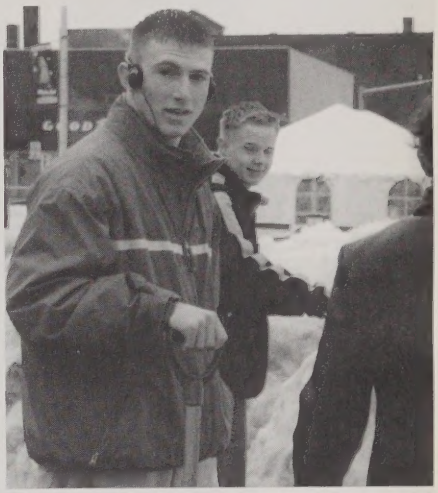
COMPUTER USE
Practicing hard to reach his goal as a song writer Coldan Tith reviews his book & makes sure he is playing the right notes.

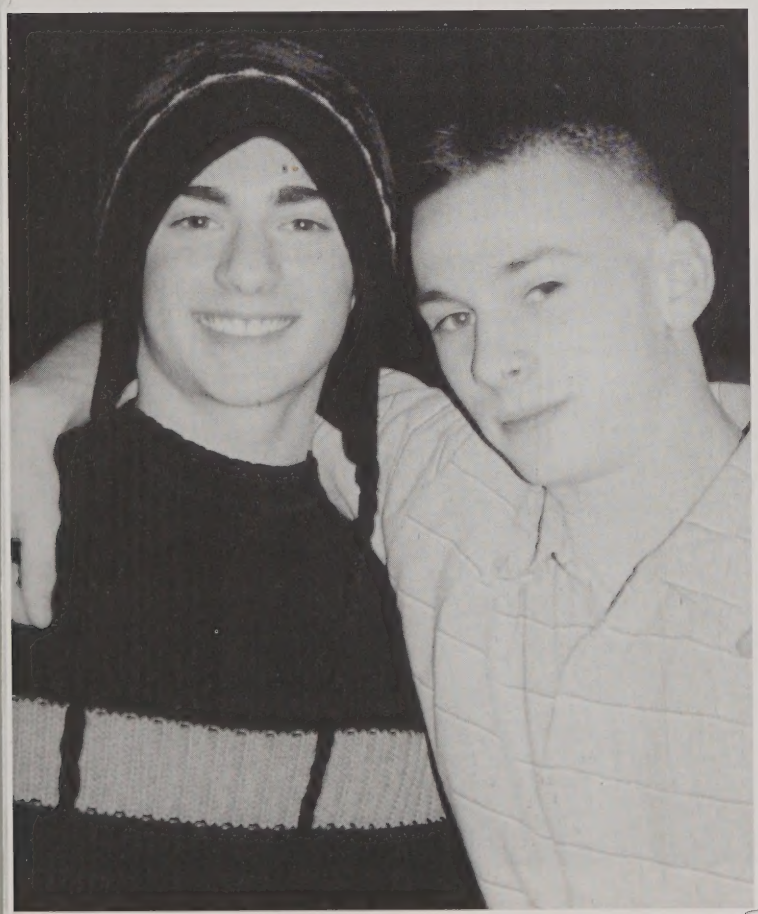


SECOND FLOOR, NEW BUILDING
Making sure all their scholarship forms are complete, Dave Silva & Laura Hughes take one last look before handing applications over to Mr. Merrill.

A HELPING HAND
Emptying recycle bins, Eric Foley & Vinthy Thach do their part to help keep LHS a clean, environmentally-friendly place.

PLAYING IN THE SNOW
Caught off guard, senior James Shaughnessy uses the shovel to make snow sculpting go by a bit quicker.





TANGO & CASH
Having a great time at a cafeteria dance, Billy Faulkner & Corey Cote go shoulder to shoulder.

UNDIVIDED ATTENTION
Focusing on the snow she is carving, Maria Vakalidis makes sure there's no defect on her caterpillar for the Winter Fest.

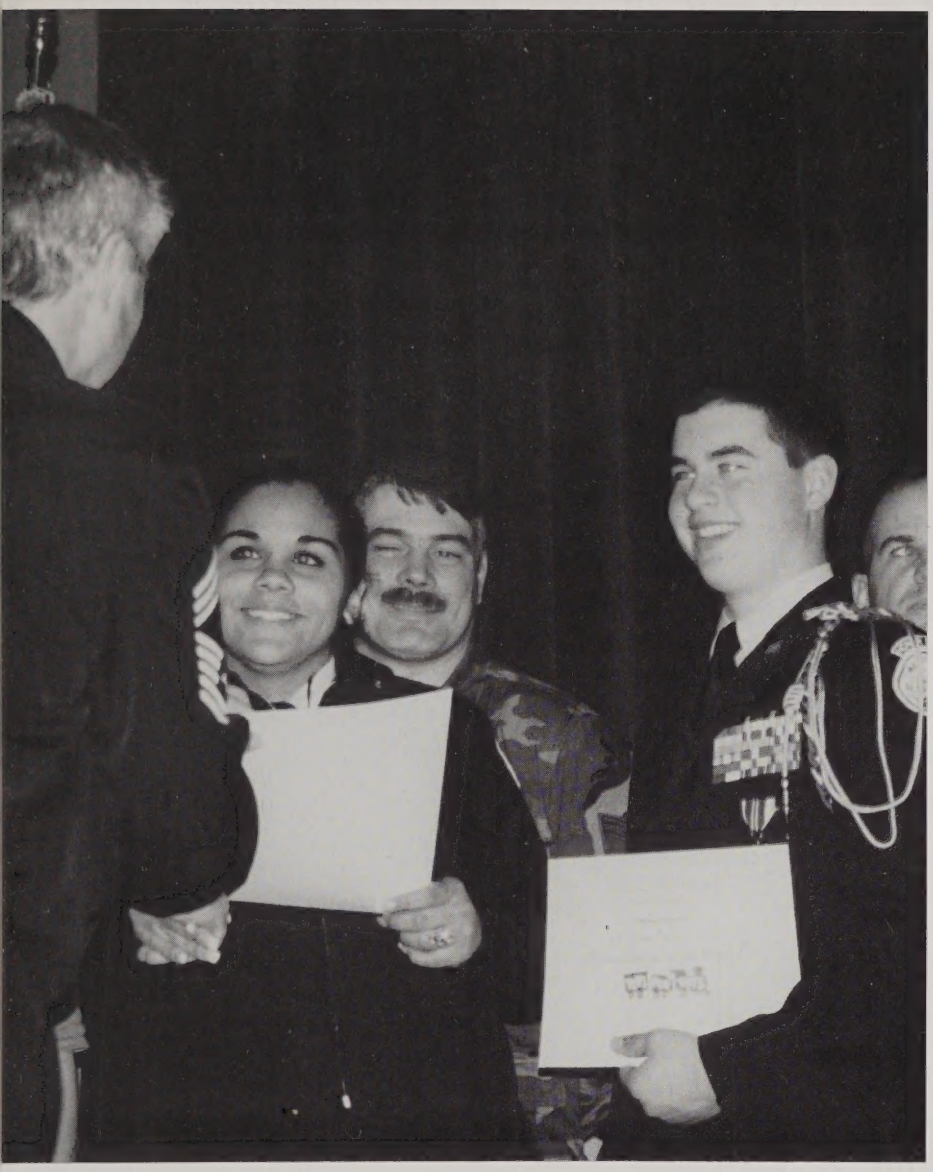
Taking advantage of the educational opportunities school has to offer, many seniors enjoyed being...

IN CLASS

SPORTS TALK LIVE
Remote Studio students Jeff Howe, Kevin LaFlamme & Jared Adams broadcast the action live at a boys basketball game from the Riddick Fieldhouse to Channel 22 viewers.

ALL EYES ON ME
Senior Edwin Chindongo films spirit week activities for an Eye on Lowell High Segment. Edwin appears regularly on the daily morning show during homeroom period.

COLLEGE BOUND
Educational Talent Search members listen to an admissions representative from UMass-Amherst. Seniors scurried to complete applications to colleges by the holiday break, while others were lucky to get applications out at all.



HELPING HAND
Receiving kudos from the Marine Corp representatives for their participation in Toys for Tots, Yelitza Estrata & Mike Jarvis accept certificates from Chief Jacques.

TAKING CARE OF BUSINESS
Focussing in on their classwork, seniors Tommy Conlin & Shannon Townsend complete the forms required in their Recordkeeping class. Both Recordkeeping & Accounting courses were scheduled in computer labs for access to Excel software.

PRECISION IS KEY
Practicing their skills on the keyboard Sophat Sorth & Daylon Viega keep the music right to their ears with the use of headphones in Ms. Fitzpatrick's class.

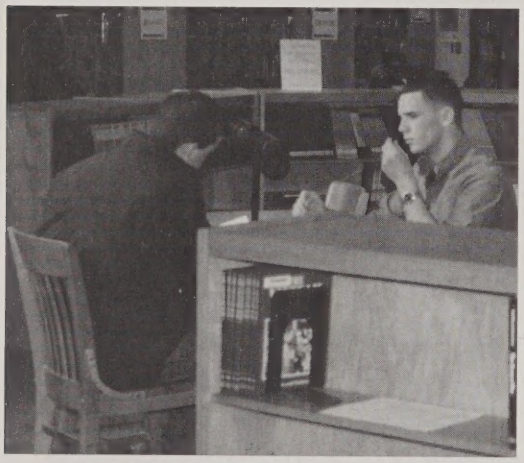
TIS THE SEASON
Future artists Savun Chea, Peter Pang & Nick Insichienmay put final touches on trees while Suzie Motard looks on. The trees were auctioned for charity.

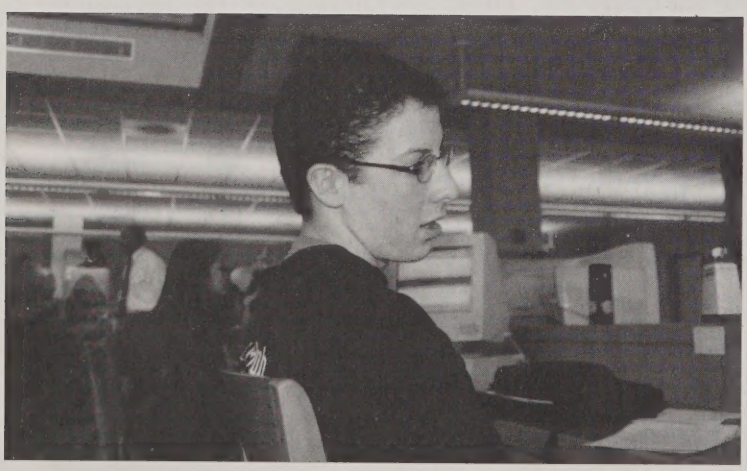
A senior spends more time in class than on most other activities in their life...85% of seniors hold a part-time job, 64% are involved in sports, 50% are involved in a school activity on a weekly basis...leaving little time for...

School Work to be Done

ALL SMILES
Presenting information on Mutation & Pollution, students in Mrs. Ervia & Mr. Isidirio's biology classes debate information they researched.

THE THINKER
Seniors Ryan Underwood & Russell Dyment spend some extra time on their studies in the Library Media Center.





DAZED & CONFUSED
Senior Eddie Kennedy sits back from the computer to take in the information from the internet. Eddie was researching the theory of monkeys starting the spread of AIDS.

CAMERA SHY
Members of Mrs. Carey's Sociology class listen to the insightful discussion.

HANGING IN THE HALLWAYS

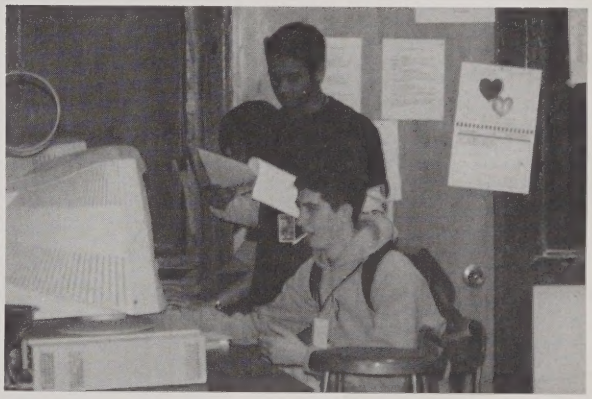
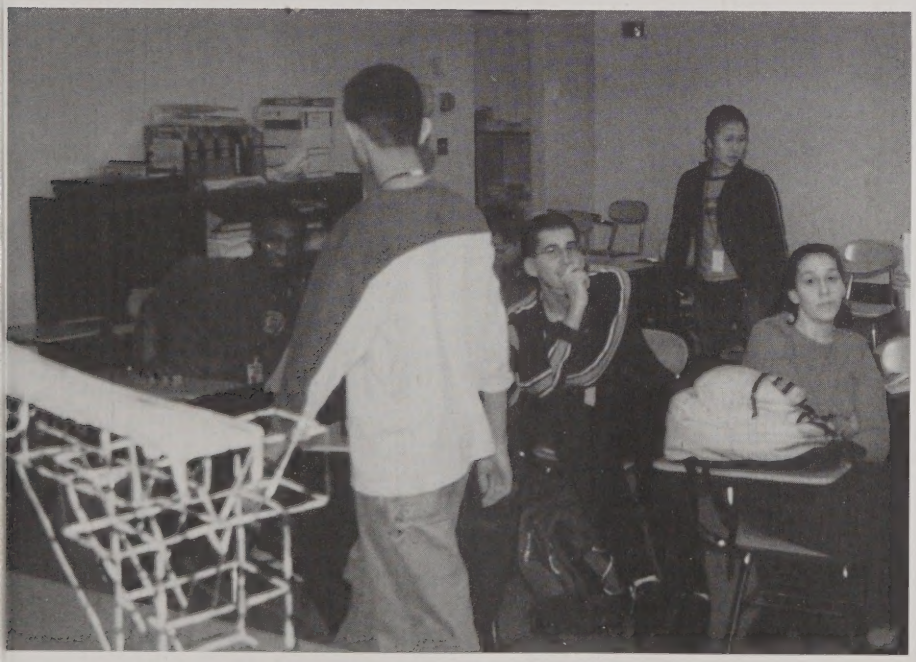
THE RIGHT ANSWER
Trying to earn extra points Wilson Rith & Matt Brousseau use the resources available to find answers to Mr. Powers' scavenger hunt.





BUILDING KNOWLEDGE
Engineering Fundamental students present bridges built with paper clips, tape & index cards.

LIFELONG LEARNING
Through professional development, teachers must enhance their knowledge continuously. In early September, faculty & staff members were given email training throughout the building. Joan Dunlavey introduces faculty to Microsoft Outlook, while Ric O'Brien listens intently. Focused on her screen, guidance counselors Kitsy Durkin & Sandra Martin work on their own to access pertinent information. The focus of the workshop was to enhance communication between administration & faculty members while cutting down on the paper distributed each week.

BONE MARROW DONORS

Working with outside causes, Student Activities Director Susan Fineman helps out community programs when possible. On September 27, Mutsi Holliman from the National Leukemia Foundation spoke to seniors about blood donation in an effort to find bone marrow matches. Because of our ethnic diversity, LHS students are targeted for major campaign such as this. The blood screening was held in late October.

TEEN HEALTH CLINIC For over 15 years, the staff of the Teen Health Clinic, located in the basement of the Old Building, has been helping the students with various ailments. Staff members include Susan Laurent Dufrene-Medical Secretary, Sheryl Tattleman-Counselor, Dr. David Holder-MD & Rita Olan-Nurse Practioner.

Forty-eight Minutes of Unlimited Learning

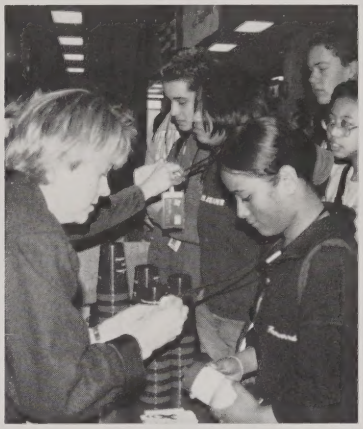
FAREWELL TO ARMS
In the Memorial Garden, Headmaster William Samaras presents the American flag to Sargeant Joseph Henderson in recongition of his years of service to the students of Lowell. Joined by his wife, Henderson received the flag hung on Veteran's Day.

SUMMER SOJOURN
Over the summer, Claudette & Ron Boisjoly relax during their annual trek overseas. On this stop, the chaperones enjoyed a quiet evening in Montecatini, Italy.

SURFING THE NET
Surfing in the Library Media Center, teacher Martha Iarrapino shows Senate President Tom Birmingham & Headmaster Samaras the way students have internet access right at their fingertips.

PAL-ING AROUND
Found chatting in the corner, John Silva & Rithy Uong serve soda to students at one of the many fancy dances throughout the year.

WAITING THEIR TURN
Scrambling for the last of the stuffed chicken, history teacher James Borst enjoys the fine cuisine prepared by the students of the Culinary Arts Program.



STOP THE NICOTINE CRAZE
To raise smoking awareness and its' dangers to people, healthy life skills advocate Mary Payne pins one of 1500 Smoke Free pins on a knowledgable student. The pins were distributed for the Great American Smokeout Day in the cafeteria.

ROUND TABLE ACTIVITIES
During a Headmaster's afternoon meeting, teachers discuss various issues on how to deal with problems in the classroom. Afternoon meetings also included guest speakers from throughout the law enforcement community.

BIG NIGHT AHEAD
Dining over a feast of food, Donald Hayes, Virginia Meyer & Gretchen Clements work their way through dinner in preparation for Parent Open House Night, November 21.

PIECE OF CAKE
Slicing a piece of Thank You Faculty cake, Janet Dendy follows the buffet line to the table of desserts. The cake was prepared by the student staff of the Kane Courtyard Restaurant.

MEETIN ON TIME
Student Government members George Zaralidis, Will Ngeth, Brian Kassin, Indira Nsiah, Christina Bates, Sylvia Rocha & Jaisauna Thompson make plans for upcoming events & activities.

COOKING OUT
Welcoming teachers back to school, ROTC members Kathryn Mulligan, Christine Mulligan & Thyda Sok serve cole slaw, beans and potatoe salad to compliment the burgers & dogs.

MAJOR MAILING
Taking a glimpse at the 2000 Spindle supplement, Tammy Sweeney stuffs envelopes for an October delivery deadline.

LEADING THE WAY
Attending a training session, Peer Leaders Sue Gryszkiewicz & Ashley Fairbank enjoy the day out of school for the workshop. As part of many club & activities students participate in out of school workshops, field trips and parties.

Students get involved in various activities after school hours, and it only takes a bit of effort and...

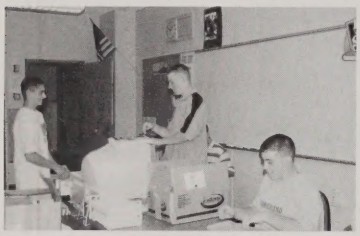
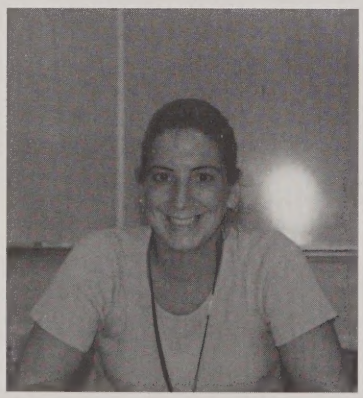
TIME FLIES
Checking out the sundial between the buildings, staffers assemble to look the other way. Deadlines may have been stressful, but these workers had their share of fun & laughter to lighten the work load.

WORKING TOGETHER
Preparing a mass mailing, Billy Faulkner gets assistance from James Shaughnessy & Russell Dyment. Russell quickly learned that putting a yearbook together wasn't as easy as it appeared to be, he switched out of the class.



GETTING THE JOB DONE
Confident in her work, Amanda Potter flies through a list of captions. Amanda was a good go-to person when in dire straits trying to come up with just the right words to make a caption sound better.

STRESSED OUT
In a more serene moment, Advisor Jill LaBranche waits patiently for captions to come pouring in to her desk. Around deadline time, students were cautious to approach the advisor for fear of her wrath.



OOOHHH OOONNNEEE
Trying out some different set up, members of the Yearbook Journalism class get premium seating for the gym photo. Amanda Potter's biggest question of the year, Where's Waldo?

RESSED OUT
uring out captions, Emily Gilday
Sousavanh Philakhong view
tures and make captions for the k spread.

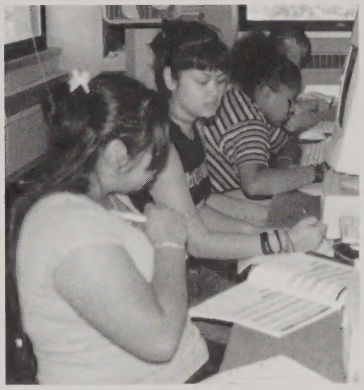
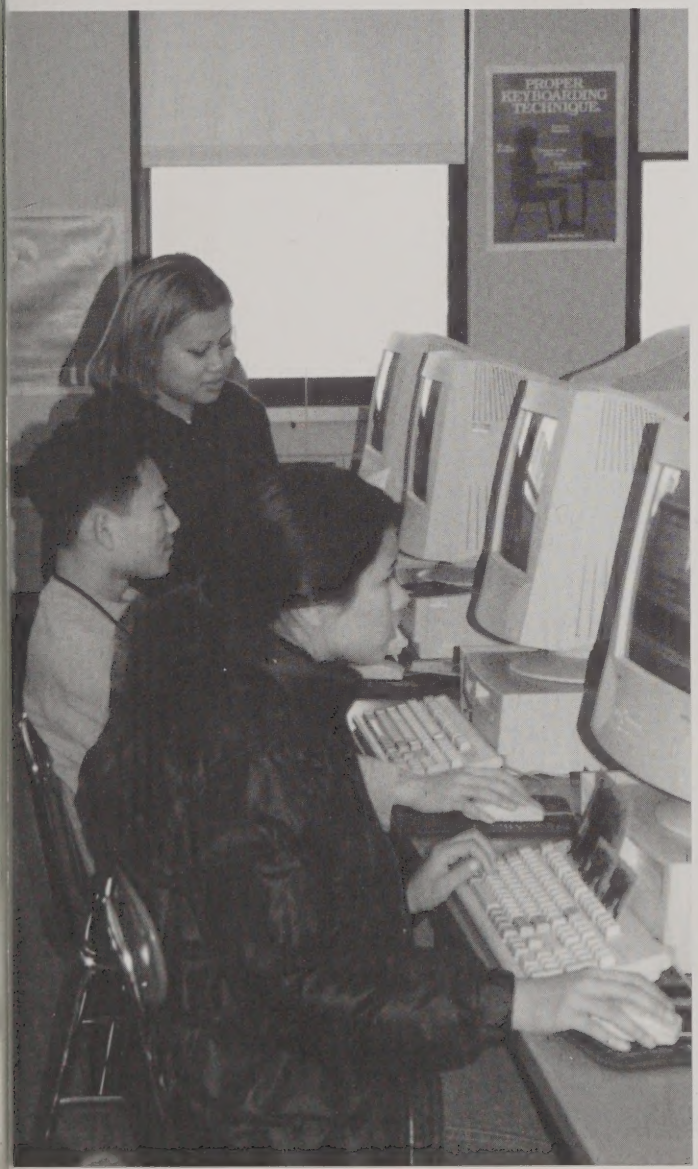
A TEAM EFFORT
Looking on, Chanthavorn Khlok listens to an explanation on the ladder from classmate Sambath Bo.



Deadlines waited for no one, as students in Yearbook Journalism realized it required...

Time to Get Things Done

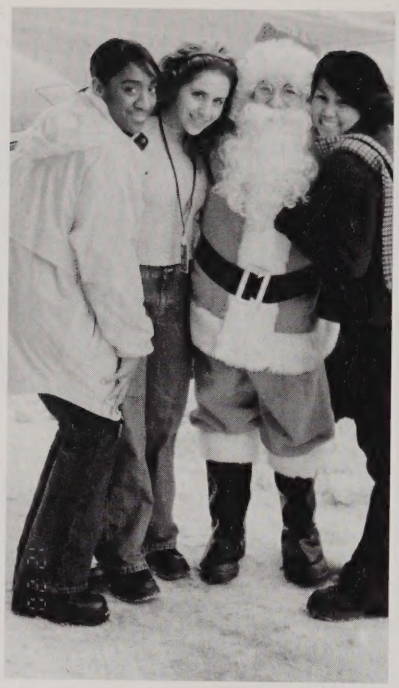
Beginning the first day of school, members of the Mod 12/13 Yearbook Journalism course were in for a rocky road. Understanding the concept of deadline, Ms. LaBranche stressed the importance of copy writing, editing & picture selection. Staffers were able to select the spreads they were interested in working & others got roped into doing more than they planned. All in all, students had fun & made the most of the experience. As James Shaughnessy stated, "I thought I would be walking around school getting information; it required a lot more effort & input than that."



COMPUTER USAGE
Creating layouts on the computer, Samath Soy gives advice to Sophean Lim & Vanny Suy for selecting just the right mix of photos & captions. Staffers used PageMaker and Yeartech software to create the 2001 Spindle.

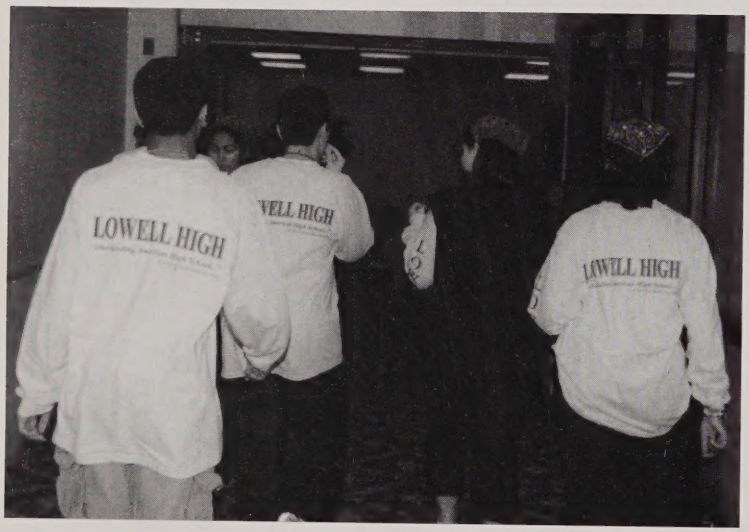
WORKING TOGETHER
Getting things done takes teamwork, as Jessie Blanchard, Kristin Hamilton, April O'Connor, Carrie Rondeau & Tammy Sweeney find out the easy way. Having someone to bounce ideas off of made coming to class fun.

Governing Bodies



THE GIVING SPIRIT
In full Santa attire, George Zaralidis huddles with Jaisuana Thompson, Vanessa Bogosian & Leakhena Levin before heading off to the Murkland School.

ARE THEY...COMING OR GOING
Headed to a workshop, Student Council members show their school pride with fancy t-shirts at the MASC conference at the Hyannis Port Hotel on the Cape.



School Committee Student Advisory Panel

Student Council Officers

Working to make school fun & exciting, President Christina Bates, Vice President George Zaralidis, Secretary Mariama Willie-Bonglo, Treasurer Brian Kassin & Public Relations Manager Amanda Potter schedule in events such as the Penny Drive to the Blood Drive to the Food Drive to the Toys for Tots program. Under the guidance of Mrs. Susan Fineman, different activities were planned each month for participation by each and every member of the student body. Officers were voted in by returning members of the Student Council.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Happy to be voted into office, President Vanessa Bogosian, Vice President Vannary Sok, Secretary Rin Kong & Treasurer Dan Carney honor their duty. Officers are responsible for deciding on a Class Gift to be given at graduation. They also serve as a key member to Senior Week activities planning.

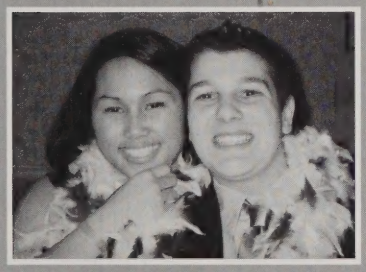
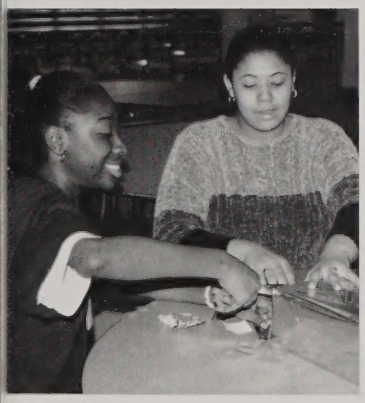
Members of Student Council...

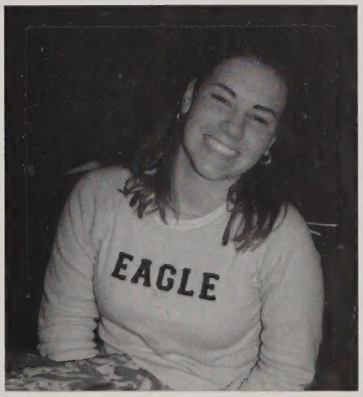
Get the Job Done

MANY SIDES OF STU CO - Working through skits for the North Region Student Council, Leakeana Levin states "I'm a Cracker Jack too!" Advertising the events scheduled, members make lively posters to be hung throughout the buildings. Evaluating application for officers, councillors look for good qualifications. Dressed up and ready to dance, Leakhena Levin & George Zaralidis fluff their boa. With good cheer, Santa gets ready to sit with the student from the Murkland School. Student Council handles the responsibility of setting up the many charitable events including the Annual Hunger & Homeless Drive.





Teamwork takes at least two, Indira Nketiah & Sha'leya Bowers.



Ready for another one, Mary Kate Fitzgibbon wraps up gifts.

Dancing to the music, Brandon Bernier vogues with others.

WE make the DIFFERENCE

GOT ANY SPARE CHAN

Preparing boxes for the Pennies for Patients Collection, seniors Katie Theodoros & Sylvia Rocha fold collect boxes to be set up in homerooms. Some members of StuCo went beyond the call of duty and carried boxes around raise both funds & awareness throughout the student bo

THAT'S NO GARBAGE
Packing up gifts for delivery, Jenn Nelligan & Wilson Rith look forward to the best part of this event, the delivery!

CAUGHT IN THE ACT
Selecting new members proves to be a challenge for existing council members as they review application from prospective candidates. The selection process required the applicant to submit an essay as well as a description of themself.

SUMMER TIME FUN
Attending the summer NEMASC conference on the cape, Colleen Dowling, Leakhena Levin, Jaisauna Thompson & George Zaralidis learn the concept of teamwork and effort at various workshops held throughout the week.

EEING THE STATE

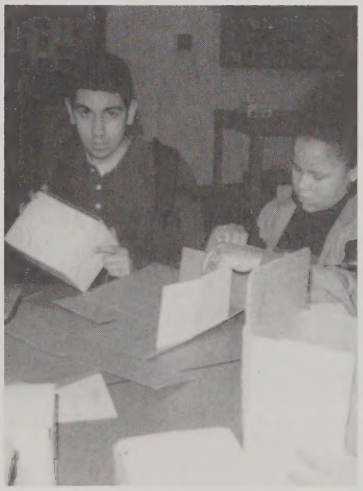
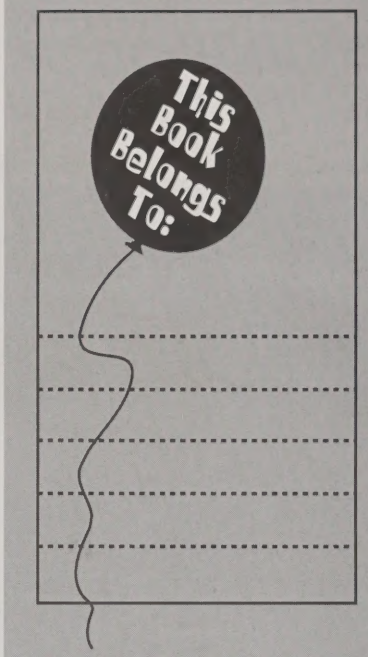
QUEEN OF MISMATCHING
Directing the next Spirit Week event Student Activities Coordinator Susan Fineman gives her instructions.

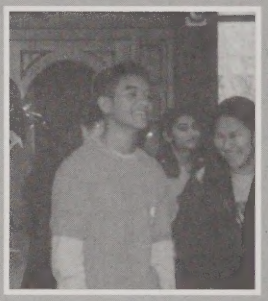
ONE FOR THE RECORD
Submitting their "Timepieces," StuCo members compile a binder of activities from throughout the year.

SPECIAL DELIVERY
Surprising the Murkland School children with bags full of wrapped gifts, Santa & his helpers arrive on the scene.



BOXING IT UP
Concentrating on her task, senior Amanda Potter folds a Pennies Box, while Josh Petropolous finishes his. StuCo collected Pennies for Patients of leukemia in March.





Laughing & hangin' loose, Wilson Rith participates in an energizer designed get StuCo members out of their seats.

Putting a little artistic talent into the Pennies for Patients Drive, senior Vanessa Bogosian outlines the poster for brighter presence in the hallways.

SERVICE TO THE CLUB
Voted by their peers, Treasurer Michael Burns, Secretary Nicole Rodger, President George Zaralidis, VP-Membership Ravy Phoun, VP-Fundraising Darcie DeAngelo & Co-Secretary Nicole Rodger serve as officers.

WORDS OF WISDOM
Educating the audience, Nehemias Sandoval talks about the service component. Student members are required to complete 20 hours throughout the school year.

LIGHTING THE TORCH
After speaking about Scholarship, Susan Gryszkiewicz lights the candle indicating one of the four cornerstone qualities for NHS membership.

A MEMORABLE MOMENT Acknowledging the crowd, teacher Ron Boisjoly shows his appreciation to the National Honor Society, on behalf of he & his wife Claudette, for the lifetime achievement award given to them for their years of service to the students of Lowell High. Mrs. Boisjoly has taught in Lowell for 37 years & plans to retire in September 2001.

Serving as a foundation for future successes...

Building Better Citizens of America

Air Force Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps

top 4 goals

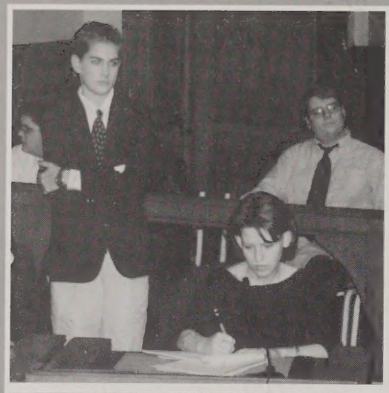
To instill in high school cadets:

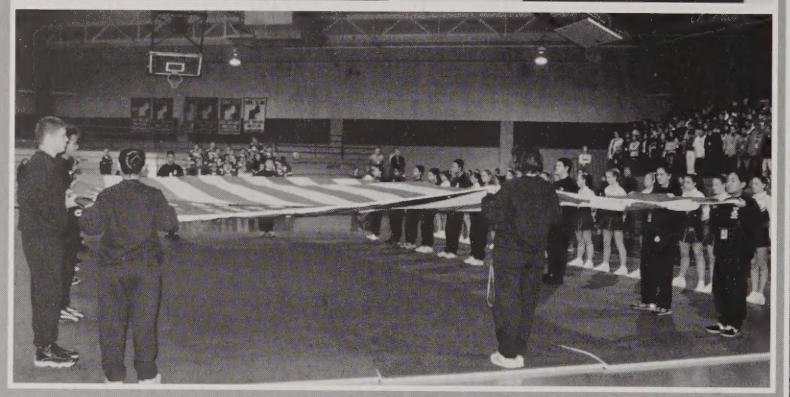
Values of Citizenship

Service to the United States

Personal Responsibility

Sense of Accomplishment





ON TRIAL Listening intently to the defendants, prosecutor Nicole Clay scribbles notes for her cross examination as Sean Linnehan looks on. SNOW COLD Doing their part of community service, cadets Silvia das Chagas & Nhung Phan, Major Wanda Ewing & cadet Allison Mood work on the Winter Fest caterpillar that lined Arcand Drive in February. SENIOR LEADERS JrROTC staff includes (Front L-R) Lescane Kao, Magda Andino, Yovalerie Ortiz, Jen Hogue, Jessica Mello (Back L-R) Ivan Maldonado, Bunthorn Hun, Mike Jarvis, Phil Corbeil & Reatry Chhoun. STARS & STRIPES Carefully unrolling the flag, select members proudly display the colors for the school-wide pep rally.

DISPLAYING THE COLORS
Standing at attention, Color Guard members (R-L) Magda Andino, Dustin Hodge, Tola Sok, Liz Rendon & Jimmy Tran show off the American flag, the Air Force flag, and the City of Lowell colors.

Taking the Law into Our Own Hands

THE VERDICT IS IN
Mock Trial members compete throughout the winter against 3 other schools in their respective district. Working on behalf of their peers were Ola-Edo Orjiako, Publicity; Mercy Saigbah, Secretary; Nicole Clay, President; Heather Makrez, Vice President; Mindi Aquino, Fundraising; Adam Donohue, Treasurer.

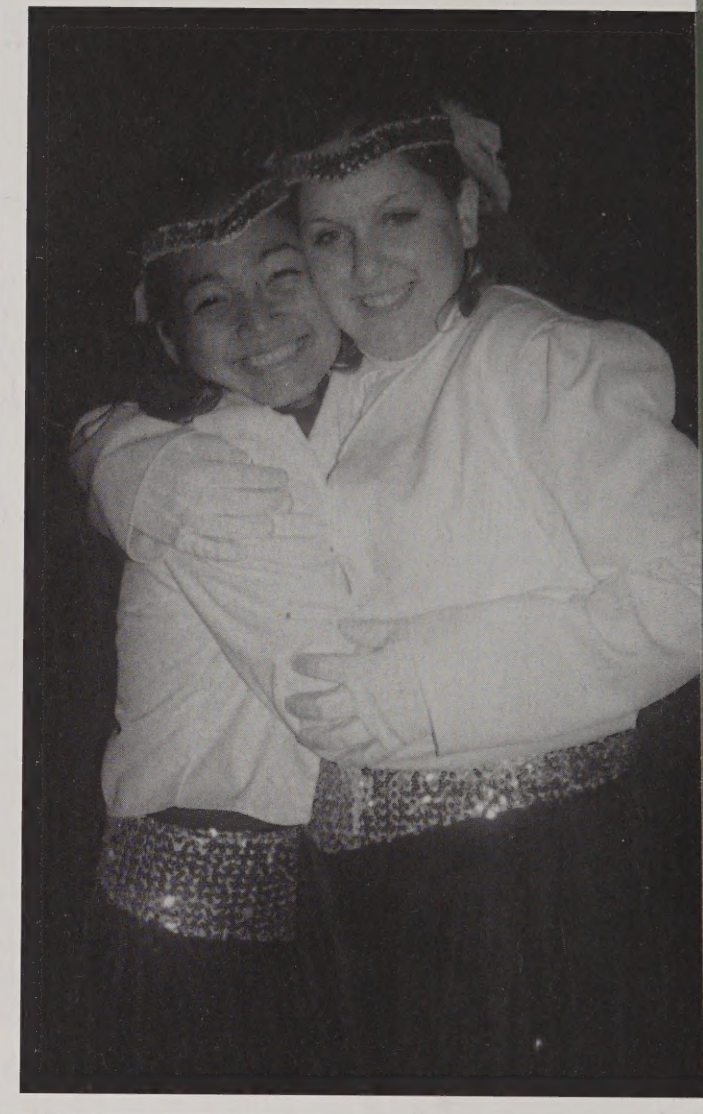
PERFORMING FOR THE CROWDS
Baton Twiller Lauren Rock handles fire gracefully during a half time show. Holding each other tight, Assistant Drum Major Maly Thach grabs a hold of Drum Major Danica Colby after a successful field show. Bandos perform selections at the holiday concert, their first concert of the year.



Two Seasons

Marching Band half-time shows featured music by Earth, Wind & Fire, including solo performances by Danica Colby, Brian McCullock, Matt Furtado, Steve Lee & Emily Rene. Music selections included In the Stone, Let's Groove and What is Hip?

Conducting senior Danica Colby waves her arms for instruction. Measuring distance, band members spread themselves out.

On the field, performers play on a blistery night of football. Pounding out the tunes, Drum Captain Mike Tucker concentrates on his hardware.

Running into position, Janet Annis stops to catch her breath. Squeezing tight, members crowd the bleachers.

On stage, concert band listens to Mr. Clark. Banging the drum, Nelly Toro concentrates on her Tympani.

One Band

The Holiday Concert featured A Winter Wonderland with plenty of songs & tons of holiday cheer. The band performed The Pinacle, Let There Be Peace on Earth, Swing Those Bells & Winter Fantasy. In traditional style, Sleigh Ride was performed as the encore.

Color Guard members added flair to the half-time show. Members included Mike Winward, Meghan McCarthy, Denise DeAngelis, Amanda Goguen, Lauren Rock, Katie Brodeur, Tammy Smith, Krista Katsirebas & Eric Foley.

TO THE BEAT OF A DIFFERENT DRUM
Getting assistance from Kevin Leal & Alex Pichardo, Mike Tucker, Matt Belanger & Luis Mendes wow the audience with their bold musical performance.

SAXOPHONE SOUNDS
Performing an aria duet, Brian McCullock & Danica Colby add spirit to the season at the holiday concert.

BAND COMMITTEE
(Front L-R) Uniform Manager Steven Lee, Publicity Manager Rachel Allen, Color Guard Co-Captain Lauren Rock, Library Manager Janet Annis (Back L-R) Drum Major Danica Colby, Band Manager Brian McCullock, Drum Line Captain Mike Tucker, Equipment Manager Matthew Tremblay, Assistant Drum Major Maly Thach (Missing Library Manager Kimberly Trimpop, Color Guard Co-Captain Krista Katseribas

Making Improvements Field Hockey Rocks

The 2000 LHS Field Hockey team had a successful season making their mark in the MVC. Lowell had an overall record of 12-3-3, giving them a birth in their first tournment game. Lowell played a tough Newton North team. Both teams battled throughout the game and Lowell came up on the losing end in front of their many supportive fans. Nicole Rodger was a force, playing midfielder, she was named to the MVC All Conference Team. Another key player was Jenn Florence who played phenominal each and every game. Lily Silva was the star player of the team and she deserved it. Lily set numerous records such as most goals in a season for any LHS player and was the league scoring champion.

SENSATIONAL SENIORS
Finishing their fourth varsity season, Katie Rogers, Lysandra Silva, Kelly Fleming, Nicole Rodger, Jenn Florence, Kara Frechette, Laura Hughes, Liz Driscoll & Anna Levin wore the Red & Grey proudly.

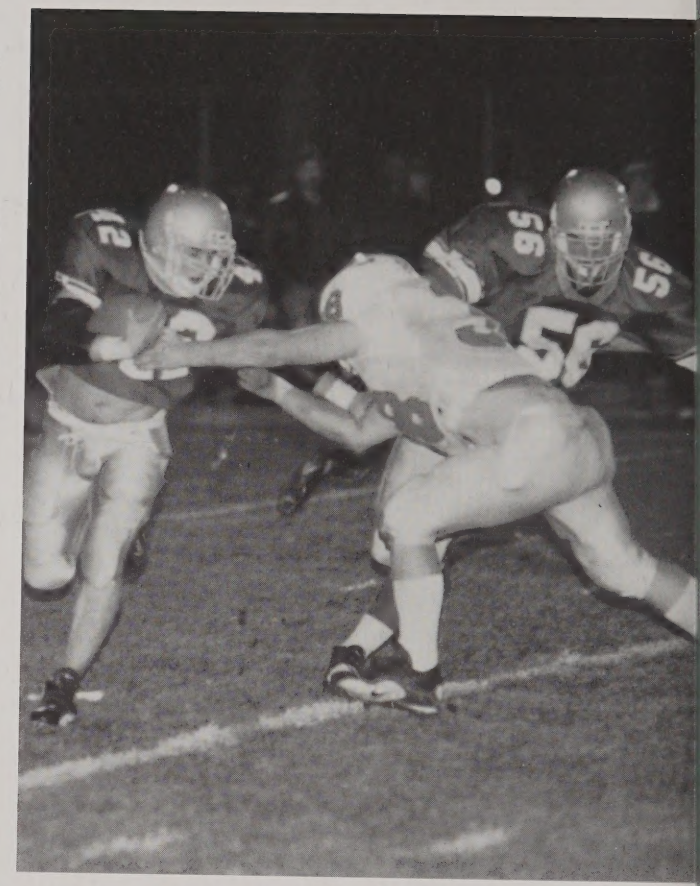
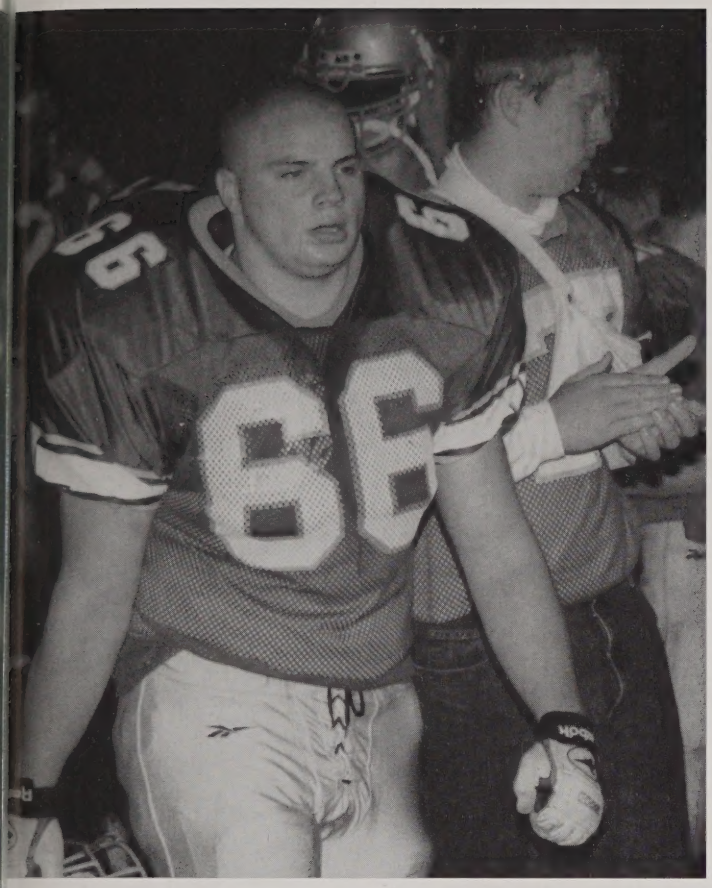
READY TO PLAY
Under the lights, the Red Raiders fire out of the locker room before a home game at Cawley Stadium. Lowell played host to Haverhill for the 3rd Annual Thanksgiving Day game.

AROUND THE CORNER
Bouncing off a tackle, running back Matt Zousoumas avoids a defender and cuts it up field.



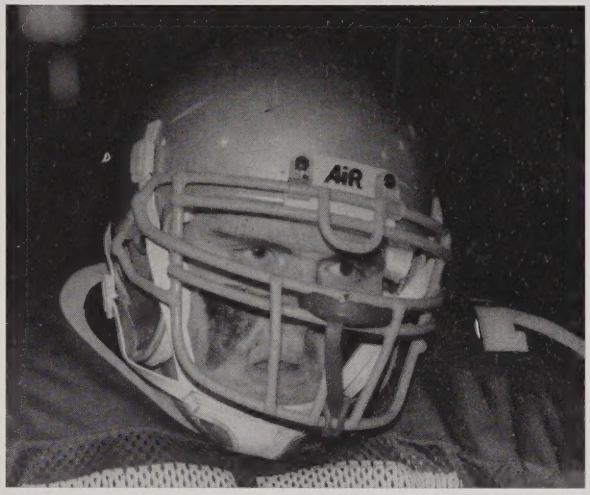
SENDING IT DOWNFIELD
Punting the ball away, senior Jimmy Shaughnessy boots one out of Lowell territory during a play against conference opponent Tewksbury. Jimmy received honorable mention for the MVC All Star selections.

STUFFED AT THE LINE
Stopping the run, Lowell's defense works together to push the pile back into their own territory. Lowell had a tough season due to two close losses to MVC rivals Chelmsford & Billerica.



ALL BUSINESS
Senior captain Peter Gran paces the sideline before the start of the second half of play. Peter was one of several players who participated in the summer camp at the cape.

A LOOK OF DETERMINATION
Listening intently to his coaches, Jordan Goor gets instructions before reentering the game. Jordan started on the defensive side of the ball and gave a tremendous effort throughout the season.



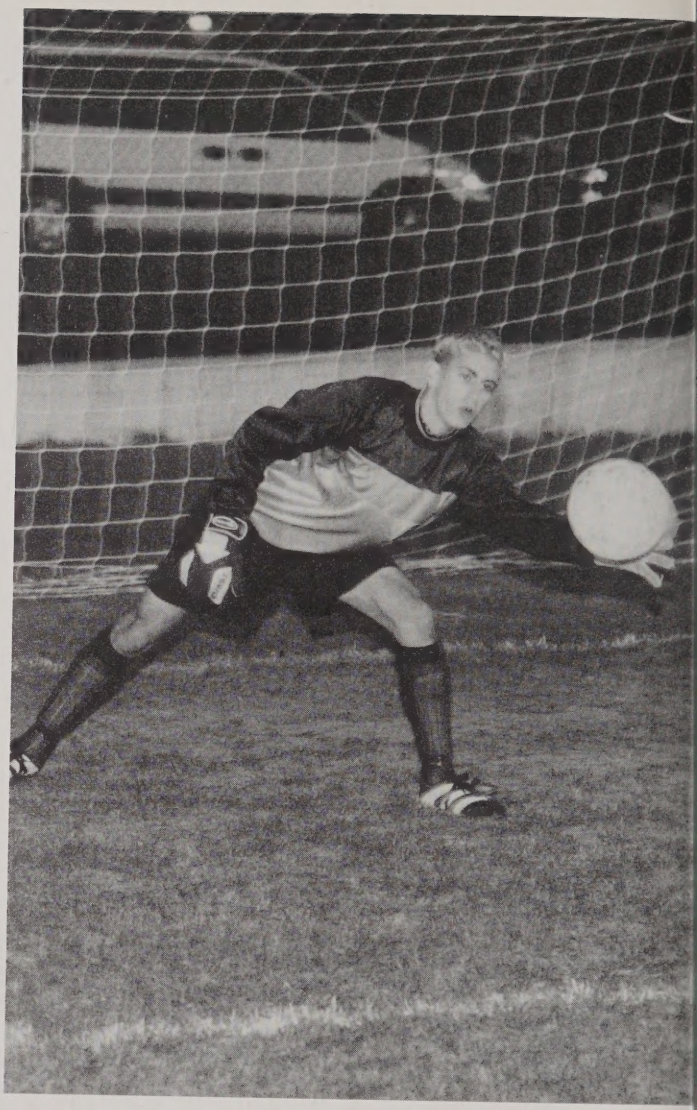
KEEPING COOL

UNDER PRESSURE

Aiming down field, Chris "Slash" Cenik launches a pass after escaping defenders. Chris was selected for the MVC All-Star first team honors.

FANCY FOOTWORK
Dribbling the ball up midfield, Manuel Rendon carefully maintains control.

MAKING THE SAVE
Arms outstretched & eyes focused on the ball, goalie Bobby Pontes keeps the ball out of the net. Bobby was named to the MVC All Conference Team.



Facing Down the Challenges

A LEG UP

What an amazing season these guys have had! The boys soccer team swept through the MVC falling short of the League Championship in a nail biter against Central Catholic. This final regular season matchup culminated a 7 game winning streak that brought the Red Raiders from the bottom of the MVC rankings to the title fight. Although the loss had an affect on the players, the team conditioned for their true test, the Division 1 Championship games. Shooting it out in the quarterfinal round over Somerville (3-2), Lowell went against Framingham to squeak to a 1-0 shutout. Meeting Cambridge in their final game, Lowell lost 1-0 but proved to themselves that teamwork & effort make for a winning year! Congratulations on a successful season 14-4-3!

Kicking Up Your Heels

Under the direction of first year Head Coach Bob Paquin, the girls soccer team finished the season with a record of 2-13-3; not a true representation of the hard work, effort and dedication put in by the girls. "Non-experience in varsity play was a major factor in the final game outcome," stated head coach Bob Paquin.

Grasping new skills & techniques throughout the season pulled the girls together as a team and helped them finish the rough season with a winning attitude. Choosing key players from the JV team helped out,when injuries seemed to strike the team at key times.

THROUGH THICK & THIN
Showing the bond they've made through the years, seniors Ashley Abcunus, Amanda Potter, Anne Mangan, Leanne Sandburg, Lauren Maloney, Caitlyn Green, Captians Katherine Kennedy & Sarah Staid enjoy the fun of friends.

KEEPING THE BOOKS

LEADING THE WAY
Professionals at their game, seniors Ashley Cote & Tabitha Hebert led their teammates to the MVC Division 2 Championship. Tabitha also earned MVC All Star kudos.

One Spike Ahead

Sweeping Others Aside

The girls volleyball reached two very important milestones this season. For the first time in 17 years, they beat the Dracut Middies; a major accomplishment since working the four years finally paid off for seniors Ashley Cote & Tabitha Hebert. Also, Lowell captured the MVC Division 2 Championship after rallying 6 straight matches and beating inter-league rivalry, Tewksbury.

Ashley Cote was the "sparkplug" for Lowell during the Tewksbury game, reinforcing why she was chosen MVC Division 2 Player of the Year.

Lowell's Championship qualified them for the Division 1 North Quarterfinal matchup with Andover. But for the second straight year, Andover swept Lowell out of the tourney.

Yell Red, Red

From NCA Cheer Camp at Boston University to NCA Myrtle Beach to NCA New York, over the past four years, members of the LHS Cheerleading squad have literally had their share of ups & downs. Winning the state championship in 1999, Candice, Nina & Shannon have cheered hard for the athletic teams & the city of Lowell. With the help of head coach Elena Hickey & Kim Mello, former head coach Jill LaBranche, Lauren & Jill Gryszkiewicz, the girls developed not only athletic ability but a spirit & camaraderie never to be duplicated again.

Winding down the 2001 season, the team competed & placed at several events. At Longmeadow High School, the girls finished Third behind Agawam. Continuing their streak, they rocked at Bartlett with a stunning Second Place. Coming back to the area, the team placed Second at the MVC Tourney in Haverhill behind Chelmsford. Lowell wouldn't quit though as they fought for Third at the MSSAA Division 1 North Tourney behind Medford & Everett. Lowell is waiting to hear if their 242 points at the state competiton has earned them a bid to a national tourney!

Another Tourney Bid for Lowell

Dribble into Action

The girls basketball team started the season off strong with five straight wins despite the absence of key player Carmen Alvarado. Returning lettermen & MVC All-Conference players Asia Alston & Estrella Kuilan provided the necessary support to keep the ball rolling and the wins coming.

Champions of the Tyngsboro Christmas Tournament, Lowell went on to provide upsets vicotires against Central Catholic & Westford Academy. Finishing Third in the Merrimack Valley Conference, the Lady Red Raiders were especially excited with the major victory over Central. Thus putting Central in the runner-up position for the MVC.

Lowell finished their season by making the state tournament. However, they bowed out after the first round loss to Reading, 56-54.

Boys Basketball Tourney Hopes Alive

BOUNCING AROUND

The boys basketball program completed its' regular season with a record of 10-10. Participating in the Greater Lowell IAABO Tournament, the Red Raiders beat Central Catholic to get into the final round.

Seeded 12th in the MIAA Division 1 State Tourney, Lowell faced fifth seed Peabody. Lowell trailed at the half before Marcus Wilson stepped up to carry his team. The game was a see-saw battle from beginning to end with neither team ever taking a bigger lead than four points. Lowell prevailed 60-58.

The second round didn't treat Lowell as easily. Fourth seed, Acton Boxboro handed the Red Raiders an early exit, beating them by a five point spread.

Frederic Kounkorgo played well throughout the season and into the tournament. Leo Martinez received the FLHS Sportsmanship Award.

Keeping the Dream Alive

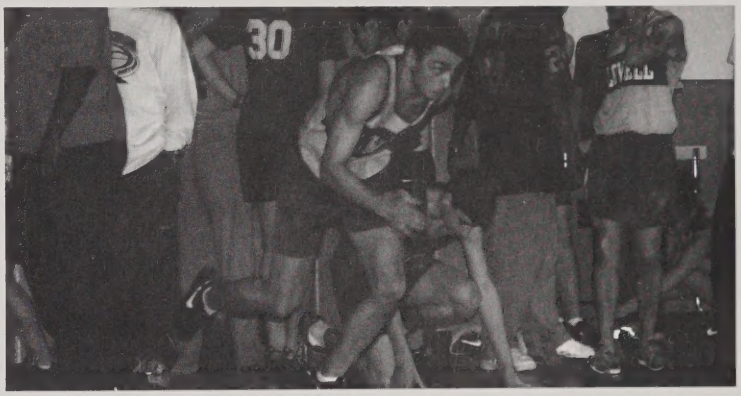
Boys Varsity captures the MVC Title

Starting the season off right with a big win against Lawrence, the boys track team continued its' winning streak. "This team really wanted to finish the season undefeated," commented coach Phil Maia to the Lowell Sun.

Finishing with a record of 7-0 the boys had to face one more team to capture the title. The MVC Division 1 Championship came down to the meet versus Central Catholic.

Lowell pounced on Central Catholic throughout the meet to capture the championship for themselves. The team finished the season with an 8-0 record.

The Girls Track team had a great season working together with several new runners. Despite their hard work during each meet, the team came up short to fall to their opponents. The first meet versus Lawrence ended up being their only victory to a long season.



EYE ON THE FINISH LINE
Looking to the finish, Katie Dougherty & Alli Beausoleil race straight away. Leading the pack, Alli comes in First for the Raiderettes.

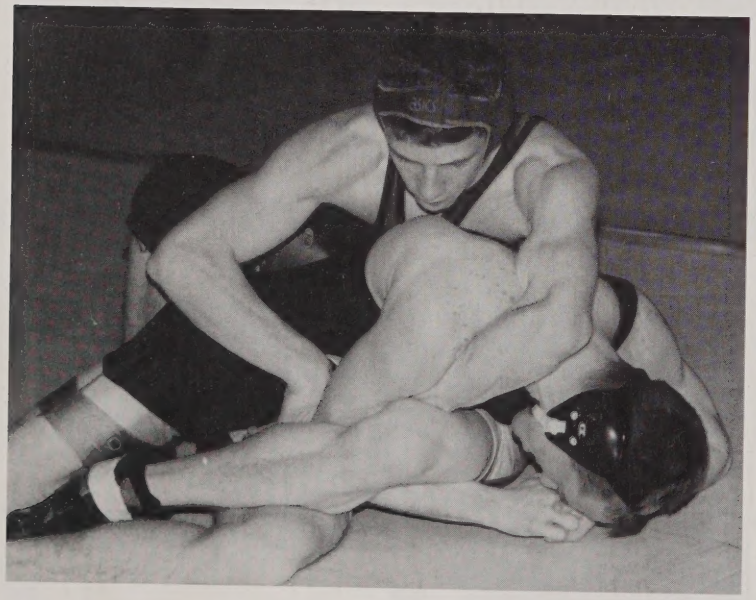
BRING IT IN
After warming up, the wrestlers bring it in to the center of the mat where they get pumped for the meet against Dracut.

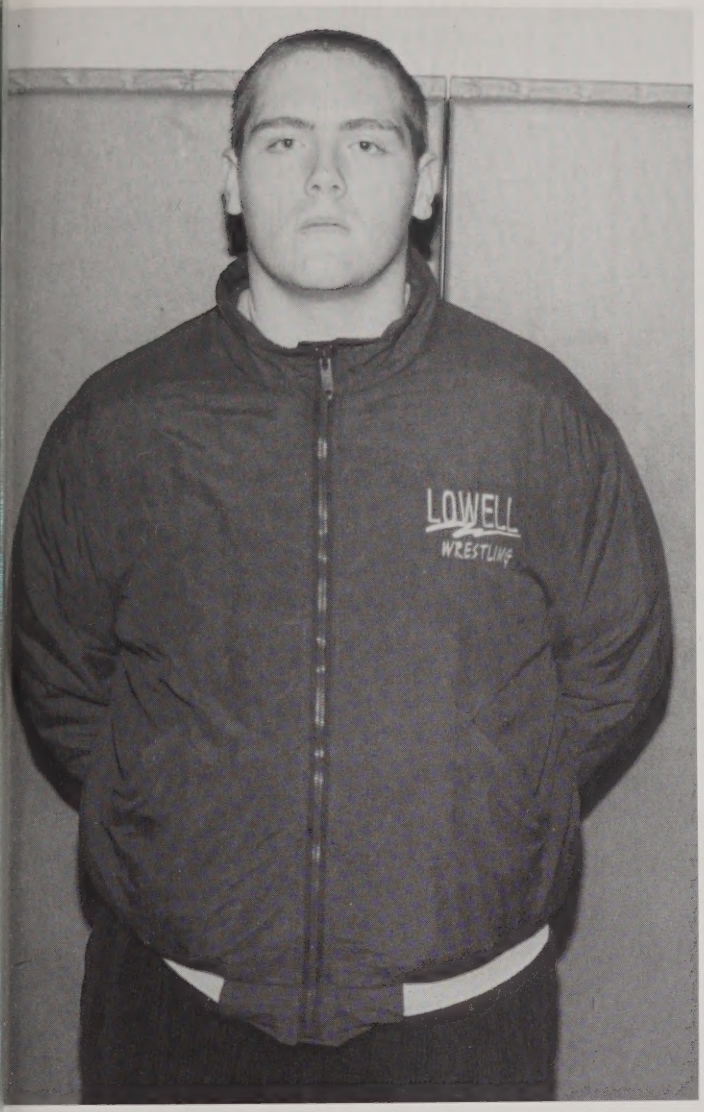
Where Winning is Tradition

Coming off last year's narrow miss of winning the MVC, the wrestling team had their expectations set. However, injuries plagued the team & their quest for the title came up short. Even though there were injuries & many new starters, they overcame adversity to defeat Chelmsford, avenging last year's loss. Many wrestlers finished with individual accolades using the skills they practiced throughout the season.

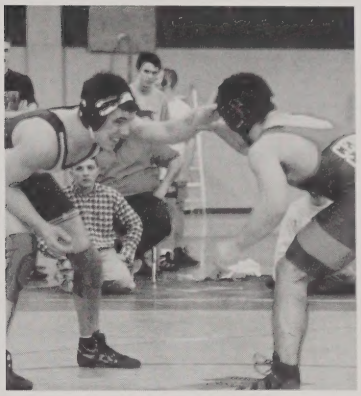


ALL WRAPPED UP
Stuffing his opponent into the mat, Dave Provencher works hard to get another pin. Dave placed Second at the Division 1 State Tournament in the 135 pound class and will compete at New Englands.

SENIOR TRIO
Providing inspiration, Matt Brousseau, Captain Jordan Goor & Ryan Underwood led the team with determination & encouragement. Ryan received the MIAA Good Sportsmanship Award.



STANDING TALL
Four year veteran & team captain, Jordan Goor helped the team take home a Third Place trophy at the Division 1 State Tournament. Jordan placed First at the Division 1 North Sectional Tournament.



READY TO SHOOT
Waiting for the perfect moment to shoot, Jon Dolan works to distract his Central opponent in order to take him down to the mat. John finished Second in the Division 1 State Tournament & was awarded the FLHS Co-MVP.

ANCHOR UP
Coming from behind, Pat Sheehan breaks down the Dracut opponent. Pat was crowned the 160 pound State Champion and was awarded the FLHS Co-MVP.

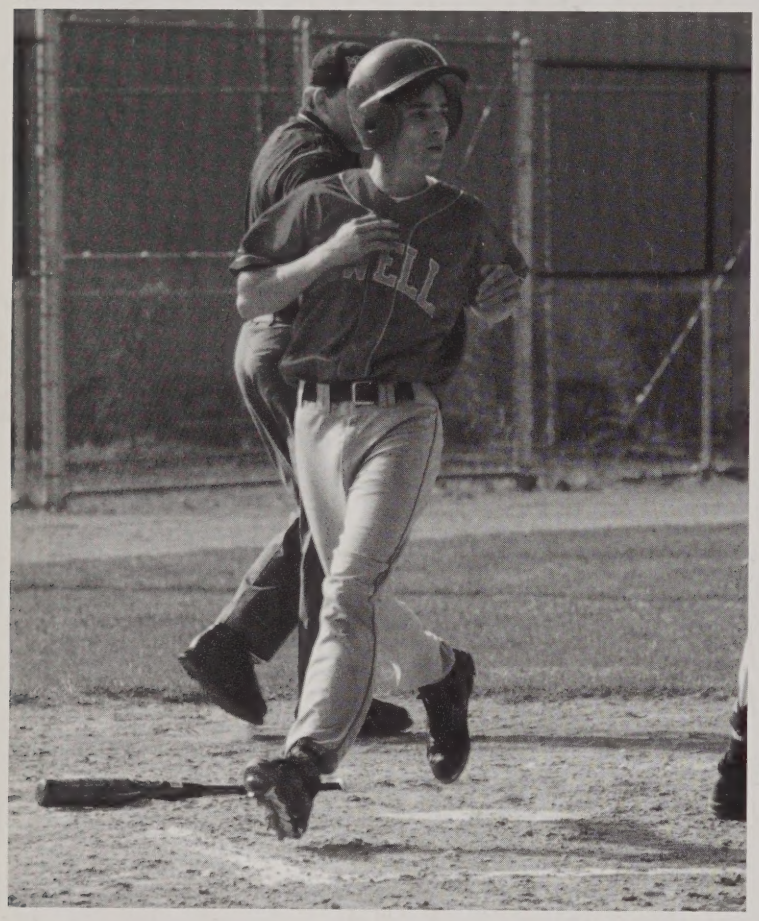
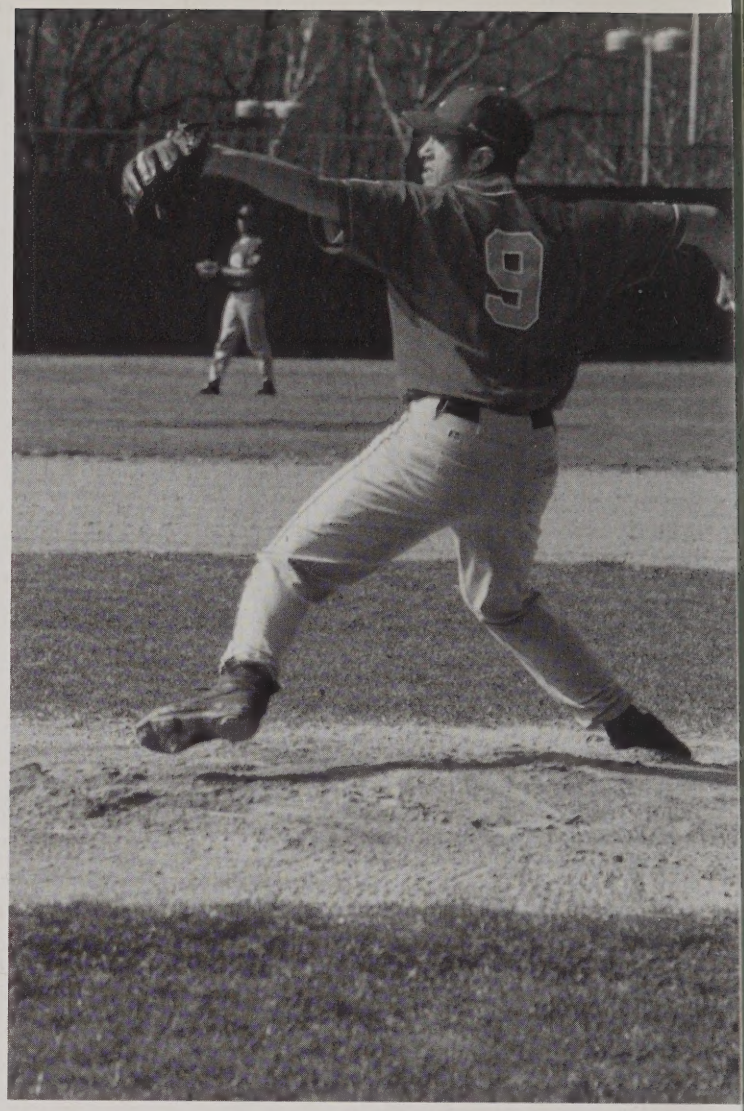
ENTERING THE PROM
Making their way through a sea of cameras, Michael Lenzi, Vanessa Bogosian, Dan Carney & Laura Hughes pause for smiles upon arriving at the Lowell Memorial Auditorium.

CROSSING THE PLATE
Putting one on the board, leadoff man Mickey Ryan scores standing up. Mickey was voted to the MVC All Conference team & The Boston Globe All-Scholastic Team.

READY TO FIRE
From the stretch, senior Derek Sodre looks to hit his spot on the upcoming pitch. Derek was named an MVC All Star for the second consecutive year.





First championship since 1996

MVC Champions

The Red Raiders got off to a tremendous start going 9-0 before suffering their first lost to Chelmsford. Their undefeated start earned the team the #1 ranking in the state by The Boston Globe. After a three game skid, the Red Raiders got back on track against Lawrence with help from pitcher Mickey Ryan. Mickey tossed his first career no-hitter versus the Lancers.

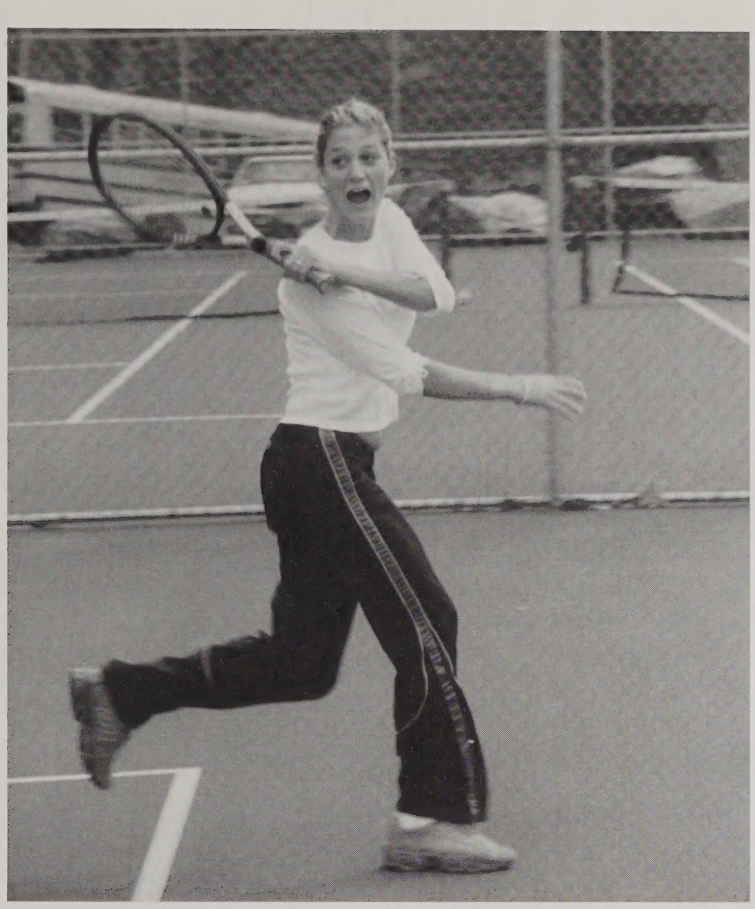
After completing the second half of the regular season, the Red Raiders clinched sole possession of the MVC Championship from Chelmsford by beating Billerica 4-3 under the strong pitching of James Shaughnessy. Mickey Ryan played his role by hitting the game winning double in the bottom of the seventh.

Lowell matched up against the MVC Small School Champion, Tewksbury & came away victorious in the bottom of the 10th on a two-run single by Tom Boyle.

Lowell beat 2000 MVC Champs Central twice to boost their regular season record to 16-5.

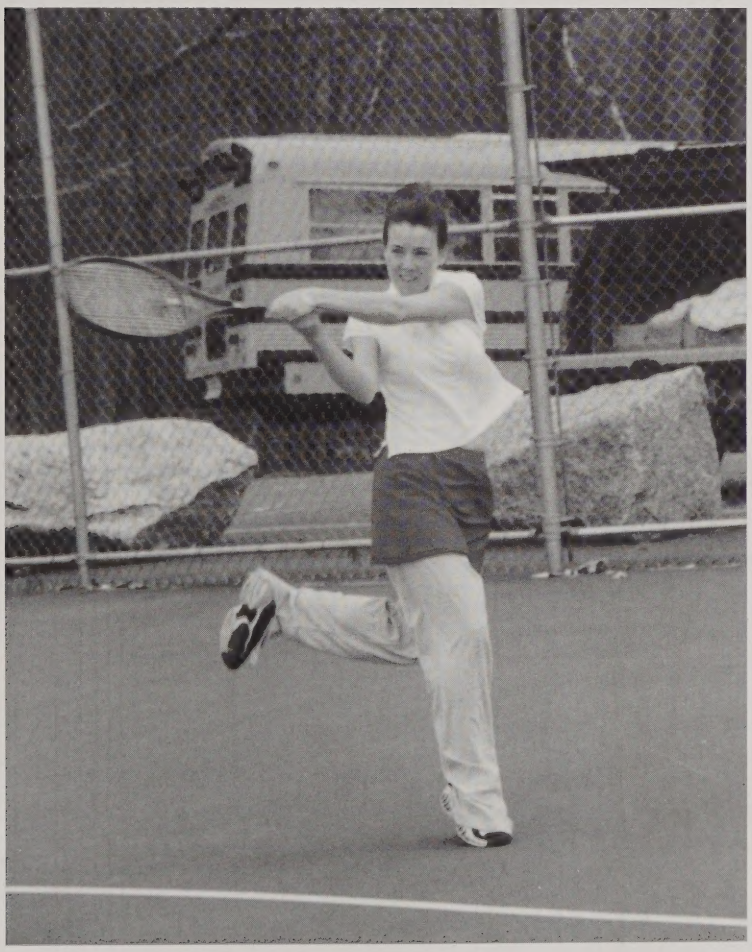
The Raiders finished their tournament season in a 3-1 loss for the Division 1 North Championship to Lexington. A highlight of tournament play was the win/elimination over state champions St. John's Prep.

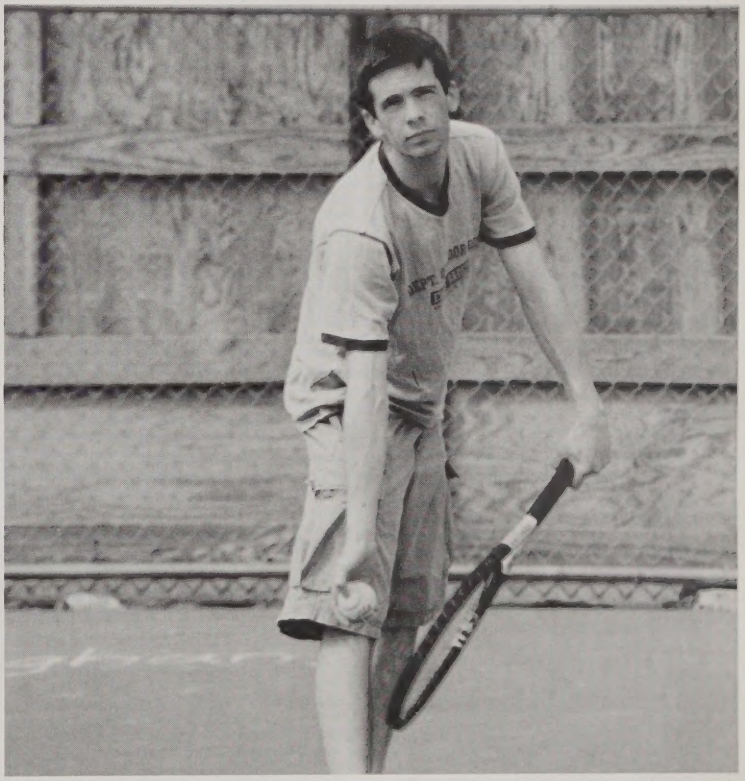
IN THE SWING OF THINGS
Taking a cut, tri-captain James Shaughnessy fouls one off during an at bat versus rival Chelmsford. James was selected for the MVC All-Star team.



AAAUUUGGGHHH
With all her strength, Lauren Faust strikes back with a backhand smash.

FRONT COURT PRESSURE
Lending their leadership skills, Coach Mike DeVincenzi with seniors Joe Sargeant & Corey Smith lead the way for the Red Raiders.





BALANCING ACT
Blasting out a rocket of a return, captain Eileen Cohn puts her weight into her legs to make the volley. Eileen was awarded the FLHS Most Improved Award.

CONCENTRATION TIME
Waiting for just the right moment, Corey Smith eyes his opponent at the opposite end of the court. Corey teamed up with Baun Bauth to advanced to the Quarter Final doubles match at the North Sectionals.

PERFECT LANDING
Just finishing her jump, senior Meghan Trudel sticks her landing in the long jump event.

READY TO SOAR
Eyeing the hurdles ahead, Lowell sophomore Jenn Davis & senior Lauren Beausoliel get ready for another leap over their fourth hurdle in the 100m hurdles. At the Class A meet, Lauren placed 9th in the 300 hurdles with a time of 51.0 flat.

ALL BUSINESS
Concentrating for his run down the path, senior John DeAngelis charges down the runway with fierce determination.

CLOSE CALL
Barely making it over the bar, senior Edwin Chindongo clears with only a few inches to spare. Edwin was named an MVC All Star. Also named MVC All Stars were Mike Haakenstad, Ethan Brown, Andrew Downey, Ronnie Lutkus & Jeff Ross.

IN THE SWING OF THINGS
After taking her final practice spin, senior Laura Hughes twirls in momentum to release the discus. Laura was the recipient of the FLHS Coaches Award.

CAPTAIN CALL
Providing leadership to the girls' team, Lauren Beausoleil, Sousavanh Philakhong & Laura Hughes work to strengthen confidence & speed. Lauren was awarded the FLHS Most Valuable Player Award.

MID FLIGHT
Almost over the hurdle, James Johnson eyes his next obstacle. James finished fourth in the MVC high hurdles & in the 4x100 relay. Rounding out his day, James tied for sixth in the high jump. James was named to the MVC All Conference Team.

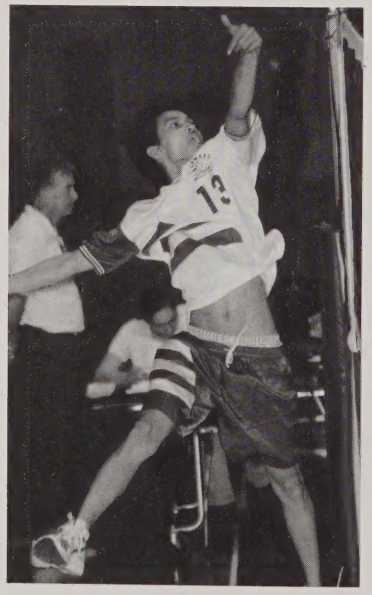
STRENGTH IN NUMBERS
Working with the coaches, captains Dave Silva, Mike Burns, Edwin Chindongo, James Johnson & John DeAngelis look to play a major role in the Merrimack Valley Conference.

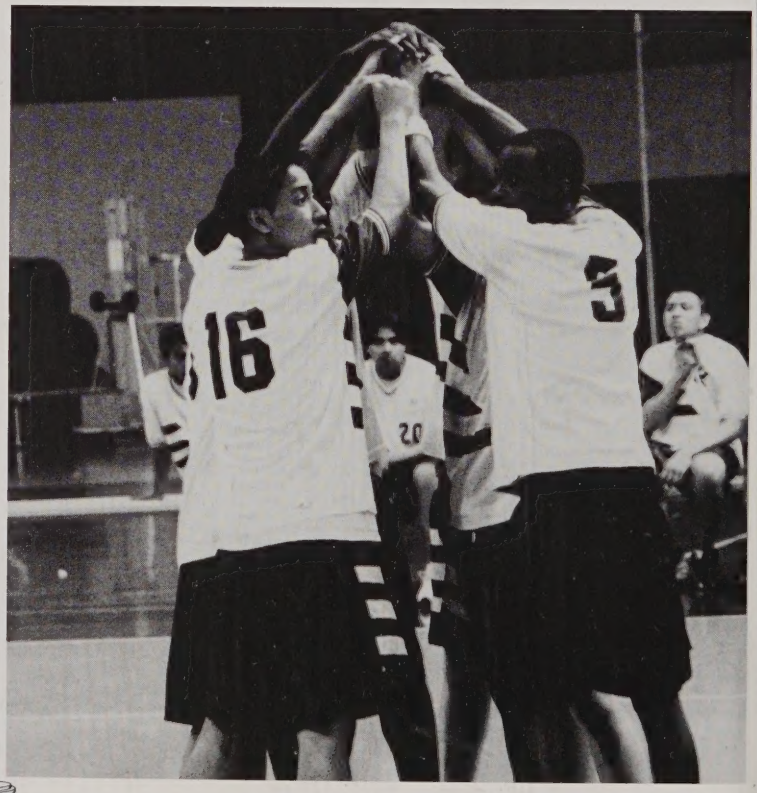
STRENGTH IN SENIORS
Looking to establish themselves as an elite program in Eastern Massachusetts, Souksovanh Souriya, Adler Augustin, Rotha Hay & Ralph Georges look to lead the Red Raiders to the state tournament.

DEFENSE ALL AROUND
Taking a break from the action, Coach Lorrinda Collucci gathers her players on the sideline for a mid-set conference.

ABOVE IT ALL
High off the ground, Ralph Georges reaches over the net to block a spike from his opponents. Ralph received the FLHS Most Improved Award.

GOING FOR IT ALL
Stretched out for the spike, Souksavanh Souriya uses his power to make the spike count. Souksavanh was given the FLHS Unsung Hero Award at the spring sports award night.





BREAK
Pumping each other up, teammates look to get the win on the next point. Lincoln Januario was named an MVC All-Conference Player & received the FLHS MVP Award.

ON THE RETURN
Returning the volley, captain Rotha Hay takes control of the game by getting up for the shot. Rotha was named an MVC All Star.

Tournament Time Again

Around the Diamond

The Lady Red Raiders made an impressive run in the Division 1 Region. Finishing the season with a 17-6 record, Lowell's fantastic season ended at Aprile Field in Wilmington. The Raiders came up on the heart-breaking end to Reading, 2-1. For the past three years, Lowell met Reading in the semi-final game, but couldn't make it three in a row. Scoring in the top of the first, Lowell gave their all to hold on to the lead. Reading tied it up in the bottom of the 6th & took home the win in the bottom of the 7th.

Up until the semi-final game, Lowell had beat top seed Lexington 1-0 & in the opening round, Everett 10-4. As MVC Coach of the Year Rick O'Brien stated, "It is luck at the higher level games." Refering to making it beyond the semi-final rounds, Assistant Coach Billy Hoey agreed with those sentiments confirming that teams hit & play well in tournament action & teams can't expect to win with a 1 run lead every time.

Power senior players Tabitha Hebert, Ashley Cote, Kelly Fleming & sophomore Laurie Tanguay were named to the MVC All Conference Team & MVC All Stars. Kelly was also awarded the Mary Mullin Student-Athlete Award. Tabitha Hebert also was selected the MVC Division 1 Player of the Year was nominated as Boston Herald All Scholastic.

A final thought from Coach Rick O'Brien, "...Outstanding defensive team...maybe the best hitting team in LHS softball history."

ROLE MODELS
Leading the way, seniors Tabitha Hebert, Ashley Cote, Coach Rick O'Brien, Kelly Fleming & Stephanie Ballos plan to be on top of the MVC standings by the end of the season.

A HOP AND A SKIP
Swiftly moving across home plate, Laurie Tanguay tags the base for another run against Lawrence. Laurie came up big with a solo home run in the top of the first inning to beat Lexington in tournament play.

PRE-STRETCH
Out on Martin Field, seniors Ashley Cote & Stephanie Ballos stretch out before their home opener.

HIGH FIVES
After fielding balls during warm-ups, team starters line the first base side to get psyched up prior to the first pitch. Kelly Fleming is congratulated by Stephanie Ballos, Alyssa Sargent, Assistant Coach Bill Hoey, Kim Sullivan, Tabitha Hebert & Laurie Tanguay.

In the Blink of an Eye...

Over 500 graduates make their way across the stage & leave behind four years at LHS

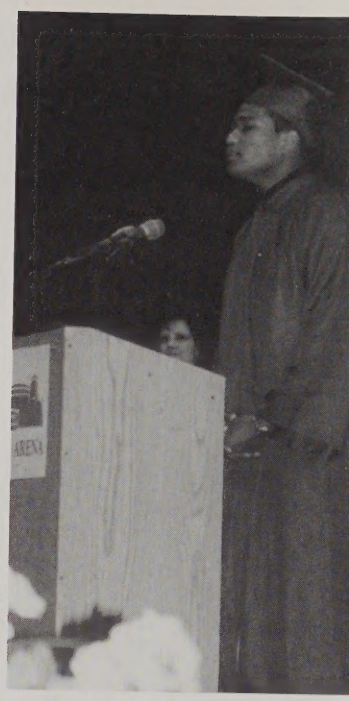
Under bright blue skies, after a weekend of all rain, family, friends, faculty & graduates gathered for the 2001 Graduation Exercises on Tuesday, June 5. After E House grads entered the arena, A, B, C & finally D House students processed to their seats. Members of the Air Force JrROTC presented the colors & vocalist Buntha Kouy sang the Star Spangled Banner. Members of the Acappella Choir entertained the audience by singing Bring on Tomorrow. Making introductory remarks, Headmaster William J. Samaras welcomed dignitaries including 100 former elementary & middle school teachers. Student Government President Christina Bates read the Reflection statement while Class President Vanessa Bogosian presented Mayor Eileen Donoghue with the Class Gift. Superintendent Dr. Karla Brooks Baehr presented Carney Medalists their diplomas. Dr. Wendy Jack read the names of students who achieved a rank of 90% or better, while Master Dr. David Moorehouse gave honorable mention to those who had perfect attendance during their high school years. Susan Gryszkiewicz gave the Valedictory address & Christine Mulligan gave the Salutatory remarks. The presentation of diplomas by Mayor Donoghue capped off an eventful evening.

ANTICIPATION
Outside the arena, Danielle Garneau, Ana Gutierrez, Cara Dugas & Lauren Moloney smile for friends & family.

CONGRATULATIONS
Making her way across the stage, Sharon Montminy shakes Headmaster Samaras' hand as she exits the platform.

STAR SPANGLED BANNER Getting adjusted to the correct microphone, Buntha Kouy belts out the national anthem. Buntha competed against 4 other graduates for the honor of singing for his classmates.

LAST DIPLOMA Receiving the last diploma from Mayor Eileen Donoghue, Quiojing Wu smiles graciously.

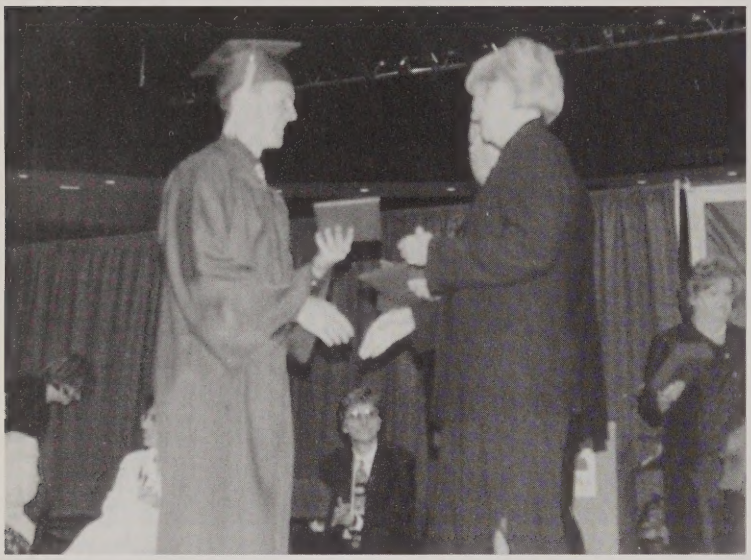


PAUL E. TSONGAS ARENA
Serving as background for graduation for the past three years, the Tsongas Arena comfortably seated graduates' guests.

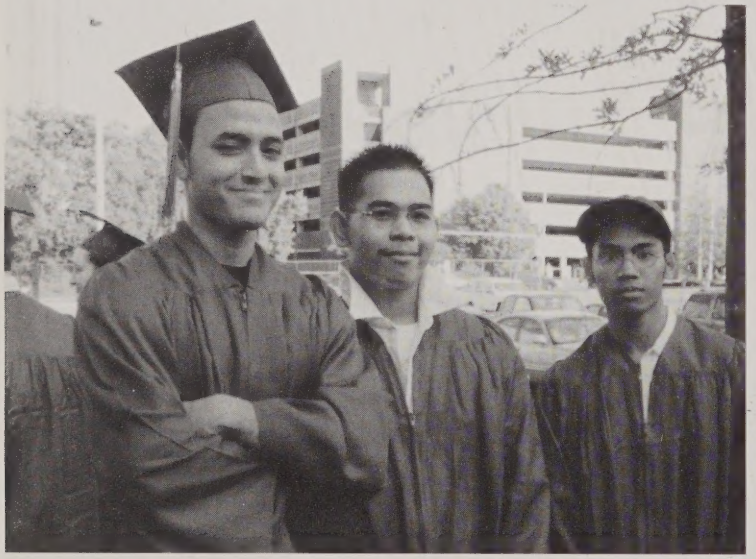
INFLUENTIAL FORMER TEACHERS
Listening to George Zarilidis read his speech, Susan Fineman acknowledges her role as an inspiration to George.

CARNEY MEDALISTS
Proud graduates Susan Gryszkiewicz (Valedictorian), Darcie DeAngelo, Christine Mulligan (Salutatorian), Joseph Sargent, Michael Burns & Hugh Gannon display their Carney Medals. Carney Medals are a tradition awarded each year to the three top ranked boys & girls.

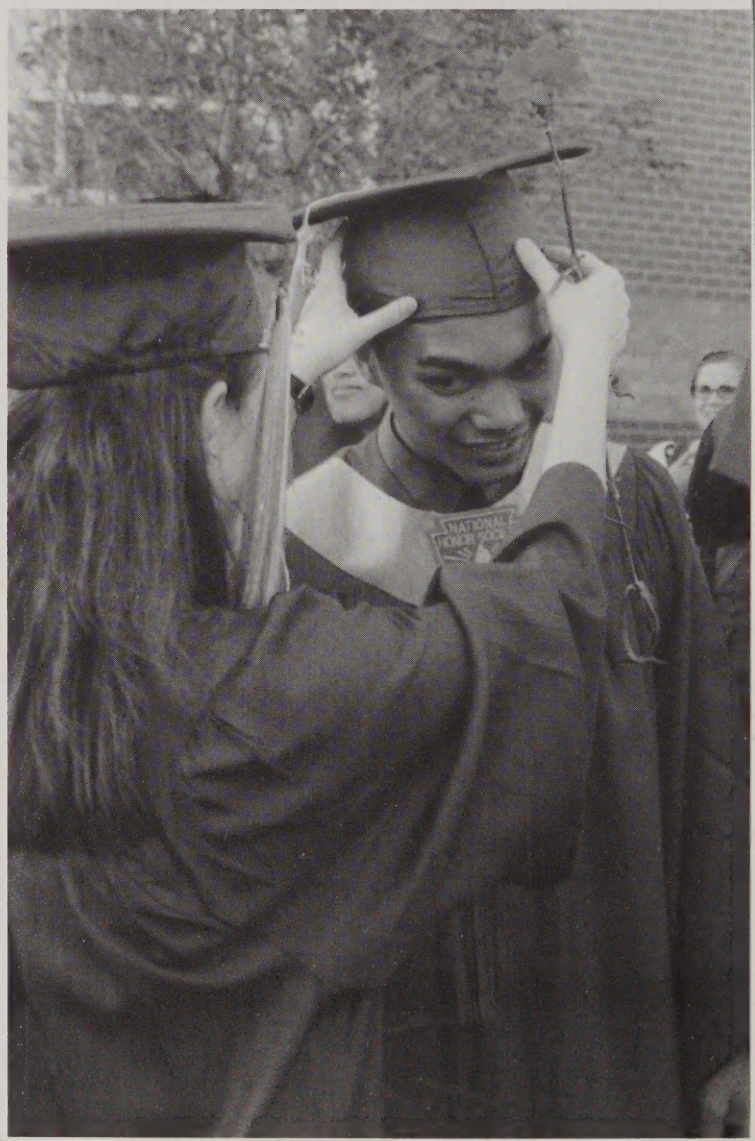
FIRST IN THE CLASS
As the start of E House, Erik Arvidson distinguishes himself as the first graduate to receive his diploma.



THE FUTURE IN OUR HANDS
Receiving her medal & diploma, Susan Gryszkiewicz thanks Superintendent Dr. Karla Brooks Baehr & Dr. David Moorehouse.



TAKING THE LEAD
Graduate Angel Rivera shows Tha Yok what cap he should be wearing for this occasion. No baseball hats, but cap & tassel.

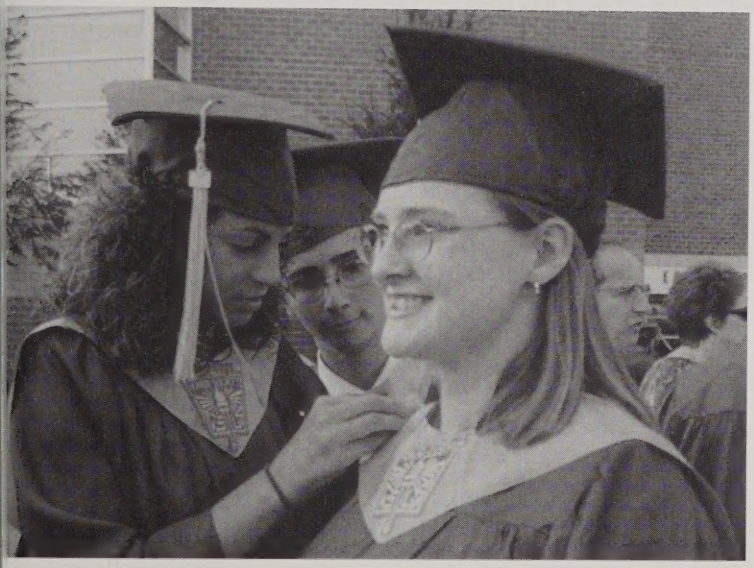


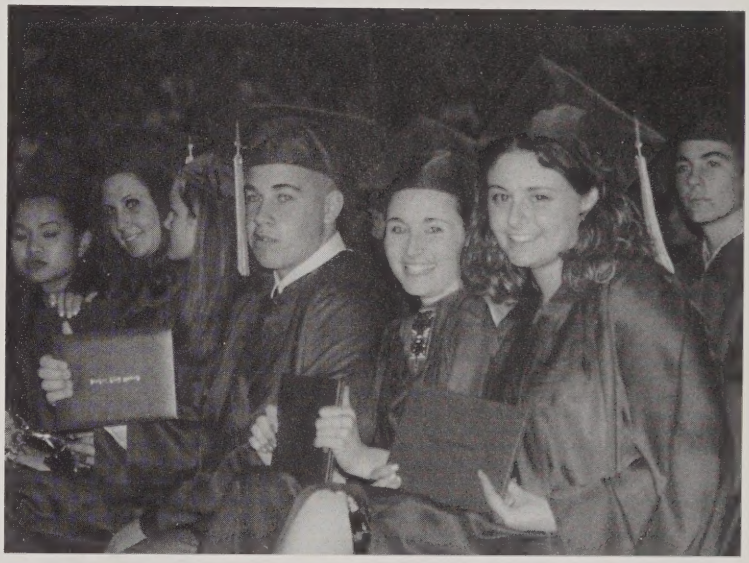
I DID IT
All smiles heading off the stage, Melissa King waves to family & friends upon receiving her diploma.

A STEP AHEAD
Getting some assistance, Paul Neak makes some final adjustments before lining up with graduates of his house.

IT'S ALL OVER
Waving to her family, Kerri Russell gets hugged by best bud Jessica Bellemare. Only a few students ran up to friends after the diplomas were awarded.

A FIRM HANDSHAKE
Thanking Headmaster Samaras, graduate Jermaine Polk gives a firm hold while grasping his diploma.

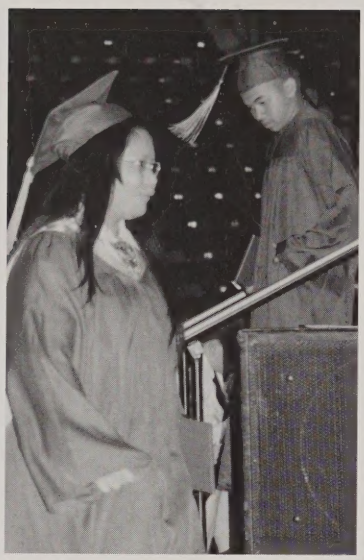


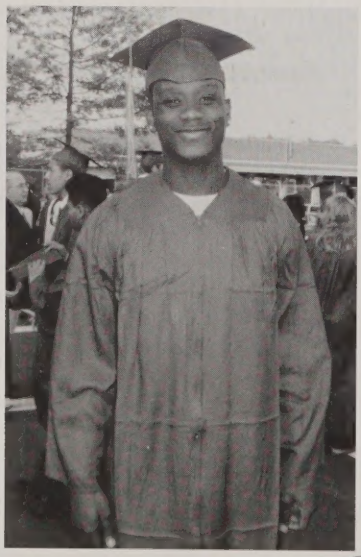


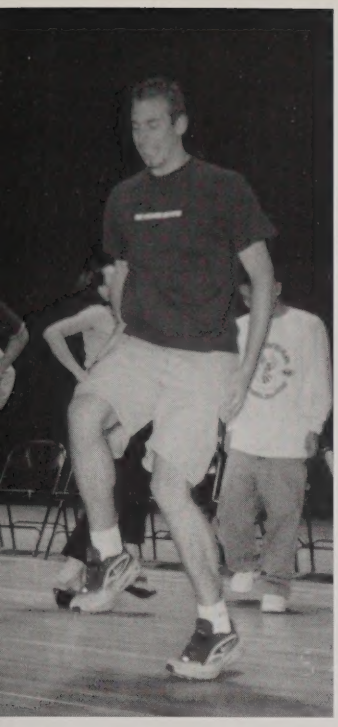
LAST MINUTE ADJUSTMENTS
Getting help from Ashley Cote & Tommy Boyle, Sharen Wheatley proudly displays the new National Honor Society sash.

IN ACKNOWLEDGEMENT
Among a sea of graduates, Kelly Fleming stands for recognition of achieving a scholarship rank of 90% or better over the past four years.

A PROUD MOMENT
Sitting comfortably, Peter Gilmore, Emily Gilday & Danielle Garneau show off their diploma covers.







DOING A JIG
Stepping to Riverdance, Sean Thellen kicks his legs up high for his version of an Irish step dance.

Senioritis sets in early

Senior week activities in full swing after the Prom & a long weekend getaway...

Senior Week activities began after exams ended the week of May 25. On Thursday, May 24, seniors flocked to the auditorium for Curtis Knight's Karaoke Contest. Over 100 seniors listened, laughed & even attempted to sing a song or two. With the prom taking center stage on Friday night, students headed to various escapes such as the beach or Boston or even to a lakeside hideaway for the long weekend.

Steve Wronker's Comedy Hypnosis drew over 50 volunteers to the stage, attempting to go under for a chance to try their luck at hypnosis. A final 17 made it to the end of the session & yelled "I did it!" as they remembered everything they had done.

Audience members roared while seniors were subjected to some funny situations.

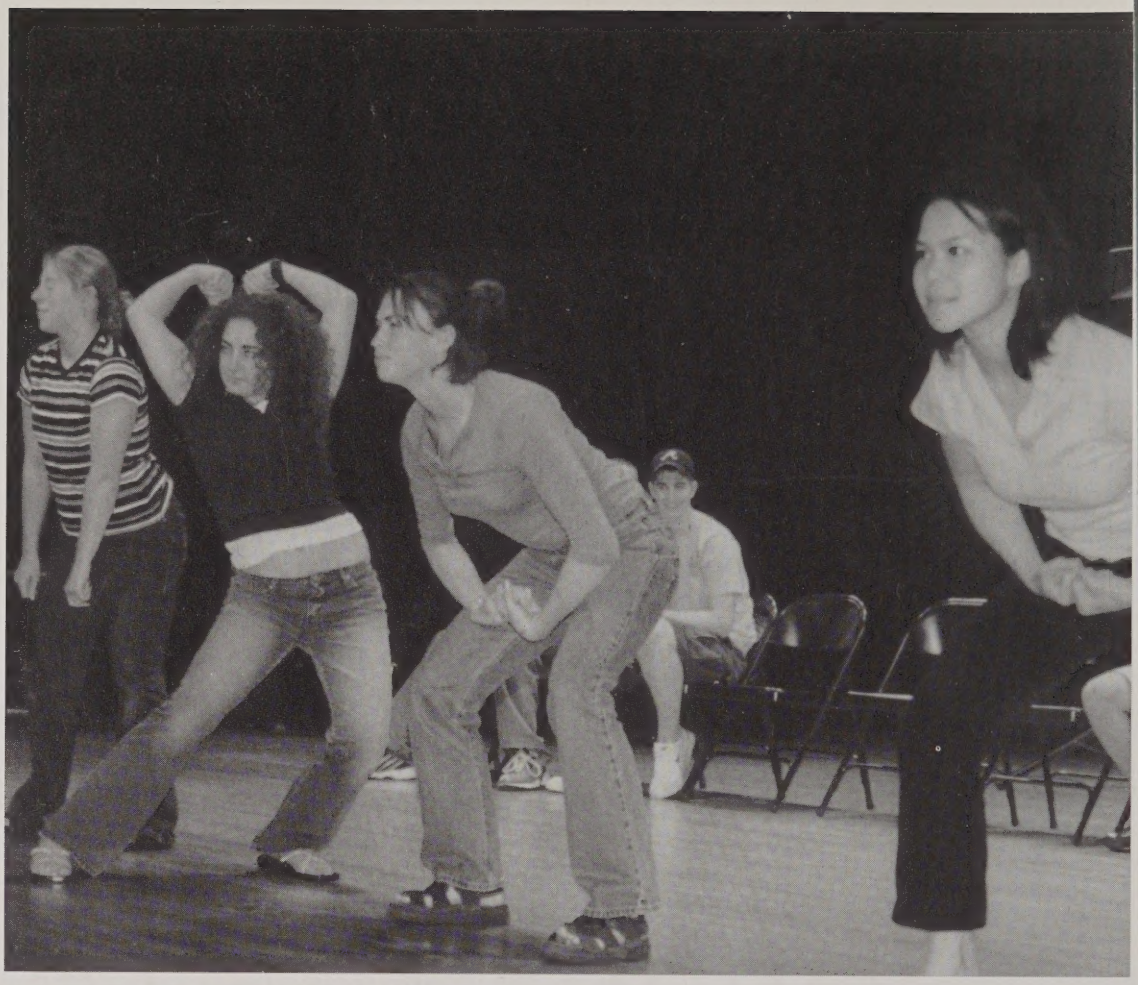
On Wednesday, May 30, a laser light & music display lit up the auditorium. Seniors were handed their 2001 Spindle with a gel pen on May 31 at the Senior Breakfast.

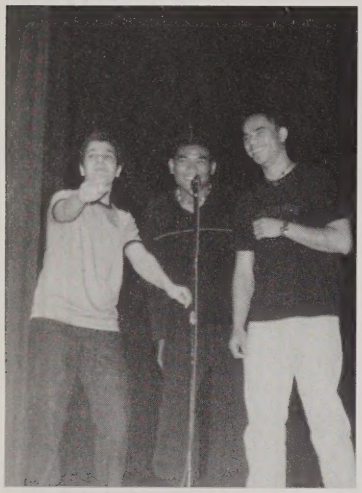
PREPARED TO GET SIGNATURES
Fresh from the check-out line, Indira Nketiah steadies her yearbook, mug & pens until she finds a place to start signing.

THIS I PROMISE YOU
Singing the latest hits, Sang Tran & Samson Kay attempt N'SYNC ballad. Samson won second prize.

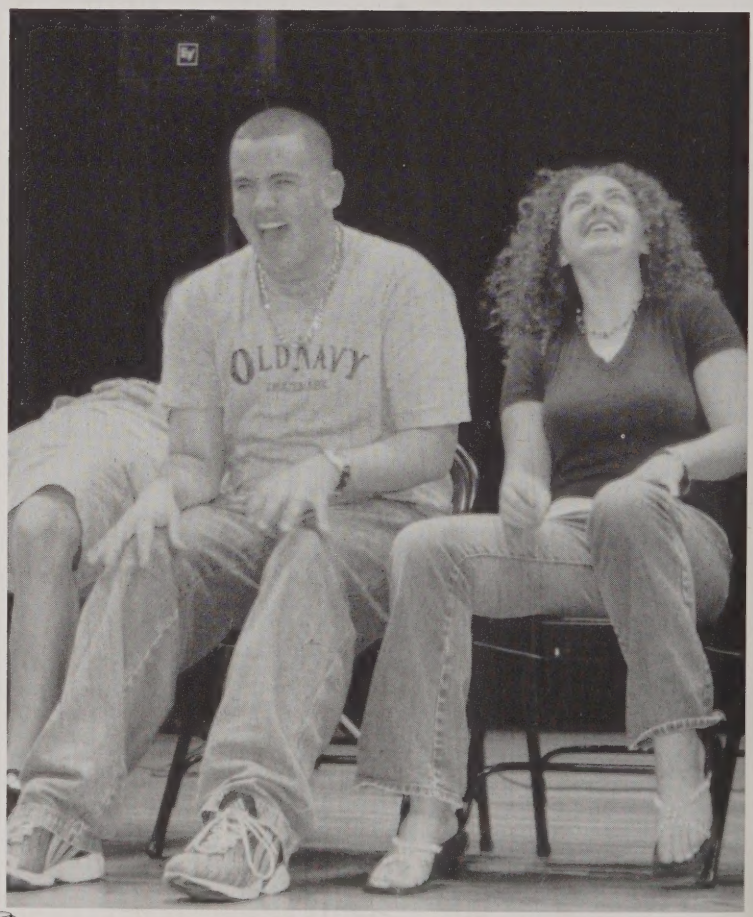
BODY ART
Posing for the audience, Candice Gendron, Darcie DeAngelo, Kelly Fleming & Wellta Boualaphanh strike a pose to show their best muscles while under hypnosis.

GREASE LIGHTNING
Crooning like John Travolta, George Zaralidis, Buntha Kouy & Koy sing Summer Nights in harmony for their shot at the top karaoke prize.





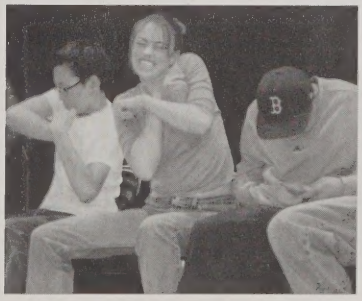
THE PUFFIN MUFFIN
Gathered around the food tables, seniors enjoyed a buffet of breakfast treats including enormous muffins & bagels. Eat-A-Donut supplied various donuts, too.



NO LAUGHING MATTER
Showing their emotions, Carl Rizzo & Darcie DeAngelo get a chuckle at the imaginary movie. After two minutes, they were in tears; the power of hypnosis.

ONE LAST CHANCE
With their 2001 Spindle in hand, seniors crowded the cafe for a final 2 1/2 hours to sign yearbooks & say good-bye to friends & faculty.

SIGNING AWAY
Giving her wrist a workout, Tammy Sweeney uses her handy-dandy gel pen to fill in a classmates yearbook at the Yearbook Banquet held at Gormley's Luncheonette.



SWAYING TO THE MUSIC
Getting into the swing of things, Souksavanh Souriya & Rotha Hay sway to the singers at the karaoke contest.

SHOW ME THE MONEY
Hiding the money from the suspected pick-pocket that just entered the room, Kelly Fleming & Donny Chantavong stuff their money for no one to see.

BELTING ONE OUT
Taking her stake, Shirley Antoine soothes the audience with her sultry sound. Shirley won Third Place with her sidekick Indira Nketiah.

An Academy Award Night

Seniors & guests entered the auditorium through a sea of on lookers

GRAND ENTRANCE
Making their way in to the Hall of Flags at the Lowell Memorial Auditorium, these prom goers get ready for a night of dancing.

CHECKIN TIME
Handing in her tickets, Wellta Boualaphanh gets to the prom just in time. Wellta made her red & black flowered sheer dress; she was accompanied by Joe.

A CROWNING MOMENT
Shortly after being named Prom King & Queen, Nick Tamvaklis & Wattana Tan proudly display their sashes & crowns for the Class of 2001.

CROWDS ON THE DANCE FLOOR
Taking a break, dancers pause with friends. With over 60 tables on the floor, seniors & guests had plenty of room to do the hustle or bust a move.

SITTING ONE OUT
Making it to the prom, Matt Michaud gets some help from friends Tim Owens, Kyle Knutson, Josh Petropoulos & Matt Brousseau up & down the stairs to the dance floor.

A Night of Enchantment

The final hurdle to purchase prom tickets was to pay your senior dues on time. Fortunately for some, students who paid their dues prior to December 1 were entered into a drawing. Suzanne Turgeon won two tickets for paying her dues early.

The next step was to come up with a theme. Over 30 entries were submitted, but the two free prom tickets went to Amanda Potter for her submission, "Tonight & the Rest of My Life" by Nina Gordon.

Due to some dishonest students, Mrs. Fineman put her foot down on ticket sales. Seniors could only purchase tickets if their dues were paid in full. Ticket prices were the same as the past seven years, $35 each. The night included full soda bar & a scrumptious buffet dinner provided by Bianco's Catering.

Once inside the auditorium, prom goers were able to get straight to the dance action with music provided by Club T Productions. Buddy shots & formal photos were taken by McLean Studios.

At 10:30 the time of anticipation finally came, Prom King & Queen were selected at random from cards. Nick Tamvaklis was crowned King, while Wattana Tan was pulled from the buddy shots to accept her crown, sash & scepter as Queen.

GLITZ & GLAMOUR
Showing their pearly whites, Erin Moloney & Bridget Byrne express their excitement about the prom. Many girls did the fashionable up-do's.

ACADEMY AWARDS
Fighting the bright sunshine & light breeze, seniors made their way up the walk to an abudance of on-lookers. A picturesque setting, the auditorium served as a grand facility.
